DEMANDS AID FOR FARMERS OF NATION AT ONCE

Transportation, Finance, Labor Assistance All Needed

FARM BUREAU ISSUES REPORT

Too Much Credit and Not Enough Capital Is Trouble

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The American Farm Bureau Federation in a statement tonight summarizing its investigation into business, industrial and agricultural conditions, declared that America is facing an agricultural economic condition which, if not intelligently dealt with, will lead to consequences so grave as to affect all industry, to the point of imperiling the social order.

The statement says farmers must be given immediate help in transportation, finance and labor and recommended the following as remedial efforts:

Preferential treatment in transportation to all farm produce held for shipment and to all goods consigned to farmers which are necessary to conduct the business of farming.

More profits for farmers, better distribution systems which would tend to eliminate middlemen, and stabilized prices.

Ample finance with rural banks assuming the obligations of financing the farmer with long and priority credits.

Prohibition from "wildcat" investments said to be taking millions of dollars from farmers annually.

Equalization of agricultural and industrial labor wages, which, the statement declares, can be accomplished only by lowering industrial wages or increasing farm wages.

Encouragement of immigration.

Not Enough Sweat

"We have tried to rehabilitate our country by every method except through sweat of the brow," the statement says. "Many industries have been stimulated to the point that they are topheavy. Liberal credit has had the effect of inflating values. Abnormal credit extensions granted manufacturers of luxuries and nonessentials have been largely expended in driving up wages and the cost of living while the producers of essentials have been overlooked. We need more capital, rather than more credit.

"The nation's prosperity depends primarily upon bumper crops, for agriculture is the basic foundation of every human endeavor.

"We are facing an age in which agriculture and industry must move forward hand in hand. Leaving the interest of the farming class entirely out of the question, it will be to the advantage of the nation to grant preferential consideration to agricultural requirements, even though other industries may be temporarily handicapped."

Move Crops First

Concerning transportation, the statement says: "It will be months and even years before our transportation systems can be restored to their normal efficiency," and that preference must be granted agricultural produce immediately, so as to move this year's crops.

Concerning profits the statement adds that more profits for the farmer would not necessarily mean higher costs to the consumer.

"The consumer need not pay more, but the producer must receive more," it says. "In most cases we will find the remedy in elimination of excessive middlemen's profits."

The statement asked encouragement of immigration to supply labor and added "the mere fact that a man cannot speak American does not mean he will not be a good citizen."

The statement closes with a plea that the farm and farm life be advertised to overcome the tendency of farmer boys to flock to cities.

"The home life on the farm must be given added attractions," it says. "The must be more amusements and assets to overcome the lure of the city which temporarily intoxicates the farm boys' brain."

DELAY INQUEST, LORIN HANDLEY

LODI, Calif., Sept. 22—The inquest over the death of Lorin A. Handley, state prohibition officer, killed in an auto accident north of here Monday night, was last evening postponed for a week on account of the inability of important witnesses to be present.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22—Funeral arrangements for the late Lorin A. Handley have been held up pending final word from Lodi as to when formalities there will permit the removal of the body.

It was said here today by friends of the family that services would probably be held at Highland Park Presbyterian church of which Mr. Handley was a member, and would be followed by interment in a local cemetery.

MacSwiney Remains in Same Condition

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The League bulletin issued tonight says that the condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney remains about the same. He is described as "very prostrate and suffering from pains in the head, but still conscious."

Mrs. MacSwiney said she found her husband in the same weak, exhausted condition as yesterday.

WATKINS REFUSES TO QUIT SEPARATE PROHIBITION FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Senator Harding and Governor Cox were promised today by Aaron S. Watkins, Prohibition party candidate, that he would withdraw from the race if either of them pledged his support to the dry program.

Mr. Watkins' announcement was made before the International Congress Against Alcoholism. He said later that he would embody his proposal in telegrams to the candidates.

"I ask only two things of the other candidates," Mr. Watkins told the congress. "Whenever either one of them pledges himself to enforce the eighteenth amendment and enforce the Volstead act, if elected, and to use all of his power and influence to retain them as a part of the nation's law, I will agree to ask our national committee to release me from the ticket."

Urges Support of Drys

The assertion followed a series of inferential as well as direct statements by speakers that the Prohibition party might be the cause for overturning the dry majority in congress through defection of suffrage votes from "known" dry candidates. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, almost precipitated a clash in an address, the trend of which was an appeal for all prohibition workers to support the dry candidates on the major tickets and thereby avoid possibility of anti-prohibitionists being selected locally.

At the conclusion of Mr. Baker's speech, Mr. Watkins hurried to the platform and made his declaration. The Prohibition nominee asserted he was "fighting for a cause and not for a party, and when that party stands in the way I will hurry to my own national committee and say, 'Let's dissolve this party for all time.'" Numerous members of the Prohibition party in the audience joined in a chorus of "Noes," declaring their proposal to stick by their party. Others criticised Mr. Baker's attitude, and the congress for several minutes was in an uproar.

Insight Into Politics

E. C. Dinwiddie, president, after restoring order, apologized to the delegates, saying it was "a burst of enthusiasm which is likely to manifest itself in any way." He explained to the foreign delegates that while they were not familiar with American politics, the day's proceedings should convince them that the dry workers here were "not overlooking opportunities."

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the department of agriculture, expressed the belief that the prohibition party should not have nominated a national ticket.

Harding to Tour

MARION, O., Sept. 22—Two speaking trips, circling the Middle West and dipping as far South as Tennessee, are to be made by Senator Harding during the first half of October.

Under plans completed today, at least eight formal addresses will be delivered and it is expected that the Republican nominee also will make impromptu speeches in cities where short stops are scheduled.

During the latter half of the month, other cities are to be visited but the itinerary for that period has not yet been arranged. It was indicated that two swings announced today would probably constitute the longest journeys to be taken and that proposals for a trip to the Pacific Coast had been definitely put aside.

The first of the two trips, taking the nominee across the Middle West, will begin a week after his return on September 29 from his excursion into Maryland, West Virginia and Kentucky. Leaving Marion on October 6, he will speak at Des Moines, Iowa; Ocaha, Nebr.; Kansas City, Mo., and Oklahoma City.

Into the South.

After a stop of only a few hours here he will depart again on October 12, speaking at Chattanooga, Tennessee; Louisville, Ky.; Indianapolis and St. Louis, Mo.

Whether the candidate will return to Marion after the St. Louis engagement was not announced and it is understood to have been suggested that he may swing into South Dakota, North Dakota and Wisconsin during the first two days of the next week. Later he is expected to visit New York and possibly New England.

Chicago also has been under consideration as a point to be visited in late October, the Senator probably will close his campaign in one of the larger cities of Ohio.

Today Senator Harding made no speeches and saw only a few visitors. During the afternoon he motored to Mansfield, forty miles away, for a game of golf.

Roosevelt's Sister

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Speaking dates for Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson of New York, sister of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, were announced today at Republican national headquarters. She will leave New York on her western tour tomorrow and will speak at Columbus, Ohio, September 24; Indianapolis, September 25; St. Joseph, Mo., date unannounced; Denver, Colo., September 28; Omaha, Neb., September 29; St. Paul or Duluth, September 30. Mrs. Robinson will arrive in Chicago October 2.

Nicholson Wins

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 22.—Complete unofficial returns from the state primary of September 14, as compiled today by the Denver Times give to Samuel D. Nicholson of Leadville, mining man and banker, for the Republican nomination for United States senator, a plurality of 536 over Karl C. Schuyler, Denver attorney.

Cox Replies

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 22.—Reply was made here today by Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate, to the statement of the Republican national committee regarding his comment on the Newberry election case and the lemon tariff in his California speeches.

The Republican statement denied a declaration of the governor's that Senator Newberry was appointed to the Senate foreign relations committee and also questioned his having advocated a lemon tariff while in Congress. The governor's statement today follows:

"The point in the Newberry matter was this:

"Except for his membership, the senatorial oligarchy could not have organized the Senate, which means that Senator Lodge would not have been chairman of the committee on foreign relations, nor could he have strangled the League of Nations. I am convinced the country feels that except for the one vote which Newberry supplied, we would now be a member of the League.

"As to lemons: I called attention to the fact that while in Congress I had advocated by recorded speech and otherwise, such tariff schedules as would provide the difference in cost at home and abroad. I did not mention lemons in the speech and made no such claims in California.

"I have hesitated to make response to these matters, but the Republican committee seems to be in a panic on the real issue and is doing everything it can to introduce other questions."

Walsh Declares Harding Partisan

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—In a statement issued today in reply to the contention of Senator Harding, Republican candidate for President, that "there is an irreconcilable conflict between the constitution of the United States and the League of Nations covenant," Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, Democrat, said the Republicans are "attempting to obscure the fact that their opposition to the league is purely partisan in character."

Declaring that Senator Harding's opinion "is borrowed," Senator Walsh said that "to put it forth at this time argues either that he has not followed attentively the debate on the league in the senate, or that his memory is short."

"Moved by suggestions made," the statement continued, "the senate directed its committee on judiciary to inquire as to whether there are constitutional objections to the treaty. It reported that there are not. The report was not unanimous, but no member of the committee dissented—some members simply withheld their claim that the constitution forbids our government entering into obligations such as the covenant proposes, though three expressed some doubt."

"Inexcusable Blunders"

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 22—The Democratic national administration at the peak of its responsibility and opportunity forfeited the confidence of the country and by "inexcusable blunders" seriously impaired the nation's prestige and influence, Charles E. Hughes declared tonight in notifying Judge Nathan L. Miller he had received the Republican nomination for governor of New York.

"Instead of seeking a swift peace, the administration pursued a policy of delusion, bringing together good and bad in an unwholesome union which the administration was determined should be indissoluble," said Mr. Hughes.

"There now is but one plain course to rectify the mischief and that is to put in a Republican administration which will be able readily to arrange for a salutary international co-operation and the full discharge of American duty to mankind."

NEW EVIDENCE ACCIDENT IDEA

Careless Handling of Building Explosion Cause N.Y. Horror?

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—While the latest developments today in the investigation of Wall Street's explosol polnted 1390$ ..N. N. N. N.. sion pointed to an accident rather than a plot, news dispatches from other cities indicated that a mild epidemic of "bomb threats" had broken out throughout the country.

Cleveland, Boston, New Bedford, Trenton, and New York were among cities which reported anonymous writings of dire misfortune. Although authorities professed to regard these a sthe work of some practical joker or crank, nevertheless in every instance extra precautions were taken. The fact that New York's custom house still stands unshaken after the warning of an explosion to have occurred yesterday did not cause either federal or local officials to relax their vigilance.

While various investigating bodies were tracking clews all over New York and New Jersey, four men employed by a house wrecking concern working in the financial district, reported that ten minutes after the Wall Street blast, they had been talking with the driver of the death wagon which is believed either to have carted a bomb into Wall Street or to have ben hit by an automobile there while conveying explosives.

The workers said that the driver had rushed up to them and declared his wagon had been blown up while he was telephoning his employer for an address to which he had been ordered to take some building materials. Then he disappeared.

Assistant District Attorney Talley indicated tonight that the September grand jury investigating the disaster would be particularly interested in the story of these four men, as the jurors had been charged to look for criminal negligence as well as conspiracy. A hint of the former was given by the workmen who declared to reporters that some contractors frequently carted explosives in any sort of vehicle without bothering to obtain a permit.

The grand jury today ordered that subpoenaes be issued for drivers and superintendents of explosives companies here, returnable tomorrow.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 22.—Price reductions by the Ford Motor Company of Canada proportionate to those announced yesterday by Henry Ford for the company in the United States were announced today.

NAPLES, Sept. 21.—Senor Ginistrelli, a famous Italian sportsman, is dead, according to announcement here.

PRESTON SETS OUT POSITION INDEPENDENTS

Attorney Says Only Desired Grower May Sell Anyone

Contract Is Considered Sacred, Says President Giffen

(Special to The Republican)

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 22.—No crop options are to be exercised by the Associated Raisin Company before the trial of the case in November, according to a statement made by John W. Preston, attorney for the independent packers.

Outlining what the independents represent to be their position in the raisin case, Preston said:

"The position of the independent packers is this: We have made a verbal agreement with the Raisin Company which we believe will be approved by the government. Under this arrangement we will have some goods with which to supply our trade pending a decision of the cause upon its merrits. The trial is to be had early in the November term, meanwhile no crop options are to be exercised, and any grower who deems h[imself] to have been coerced may w[ithout] penalty withdraw from his contract. We have never desired the destruction of the Raisin Company, and the prayer of the bill filed by the government does not ask for any such relief. We simply ask for the restoration of competition in the raisin industry, we believe that under the law we as well as the trade and the public are entitled to this as a matter of right.

"We have the interest of the community as much at heart as any of our opponents. All the relief we desired was that any grower have the right to sell his crop to any person he wished. We deny that this would in any way disturb business conditions or land values in the raisin district. We intend to fight only so long as may be necessary to preserve our right to live, and in so doing we hope that no one will suffer any injury."

Giffen Says Contracts Stand.

Commenting last night on Preston's statement, President Wylie M. Giffen, of the raisin company, said:

"We claim that the contract system is fundamental and necessary to any organization, and while the grower has the right to sell to whom he pleases before he signs that contract, he is obligated and must of right carry out the contract after he signs it.

"Unless a contract is to be considered sacred we do not see how an organization is to be maintained."

As to the statement of Preston that no new crop options are to be exercised, and as to a new dispatch from Los Angeles that three-year options are not to be exercised, Giffen said that he was not informed by attorneys since he left Los Angeles whether this was in the agreement. He said:

"Our option must be exercised before April 1. Probably our attorneys have agreed that we should not exercise our options pending the trial in November, but I do not believe that they have agreed not to exercise the option for three years."

URGE GROCERS BUY SPARELY

Speakers at Retailers' Convention See Price Drop

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 22.—The twenty-first annual convention of the California Retail Grocers and Merchants Association closed here today with the election of officers. Adoption of resolutions deploring the high price of food and advocating government investigation and punishment for those responsible featured the final day.

The new officers are:

President, Russell Warden, San Rafael; first vice-president, J. H. Herbert Smith, Los Angeles; second vice-presidents, J. M. Conklin, San Jose; third vice-president, C. E. Clinch, Grass Valley; treasurer, Felix J. Searmonet, Sacramento; secretary, Frank B. Connolly, San Francisco; directors, D. W. Herilpy, Pasadena, G. P. Schafer, Modesto, C. B. Pearson, Stockton, F. B. Connolly, San Francisco, George T. Bulde, Berkeley.

Responsibility for high prices of food was laid to the producers by the grocers.

Decreased prices in many lines of groceries were forecast by several speakers in urging the dealers to be careful about buying in large quantities. Such staple as sugar and coffee were mentioned as being on the decline.

Resolutions passed advocated a law requiring aliens to declare their intention of becoming citizens before being allowed to engage in business and went on record against the right of Asiatics to acquire and hold title to agricultural land in California.

The delegates indorsed the closing of stores on Sunday and passed other resolutions protesting against manufacturers setting retail prices; against formation of "buying clubs" by employes of commercial concerns which have an unfair advantage over the retailer, and against use of government buildings by federal employes in operating "co-operative" stores.

D'OLIER PREPARING

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 22.—Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the American Legion, today took charge of arrangements and activities in connection with the second anual convention of the Legion here September 27, 28 and 29.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PALMER MIGHT TAKE NOTE OF MICHIGAN

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—A half million dollars worth of fruit in Berrien county, Michigan, lies rotting on the ground, four hours from Chicago by boat or rail. This estimate was made by expert growers to an investigator for the Chicago Daily News which today published the story.

Thousands of bushels of fine peaches are being fed to the hogs or dumped on the ground to rot. Farmers, commission men and farmer organizations' experts gave various reasons for the situation. Some of these were car shortage, inability of boats to handle the huge crop, a sudden general ripening due to the late warm weather and "welching" by commission men through "jokers" in contracts made last spring with the growers.

Peaches which are selling in Chicago for $2.50 to $3.50 a bushel are going in the Benton Harbor market for 75 cents to $1.25, and the farmers declare the cheapest peaches they have raised have cost them $1.70. The Elbertas, which have brought $1 to $6 a bushel in this city have been sold in Benton Harbor for $2.50.

Growers admit, the article said, that their only salvation is organization such as the men of the Pacific coast have perfected.

PLAN AGENCY WOOL POOLS

Farm Bureau Federation to Deal Directly With Manufacturers

MANHATTAN, Kas., Sept. 22.—At a meeting of the presidents and secretaries of the farm bureau federation of the middlewestern states today, a resolution was adopted asking J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, to appoint a committee composed of one member from each wool growing state to work out immediate plans for a national wool selling agencies.

The first problem, it was stated, probably will be the marketing of more than 30,000,000 pounds of wool already accumulated in pools in the middle west and Texas.

The central association will attempt to deal directly with the manufacturers of woolen goods in the East. This will be done by gathering all wool in a county into a central pool by local committee of wool growers. The local supply could be collected at the different co-operative elevators and shipped to cooperative warehouses, centrally located, according to J. F. Walker, chairman of the wool committee of the American farm bureau federation. There it could be stored, graded and held until demanded by the mills.

DEMAND SURETY NO REPRISALS

Italian Workmen Refuse To Evacuate Factories

ROME, Sept. 22.—Italian metal workers who occupied factories in some of the larger cities last month, notably Turin and Florence, are refusing to evacuate the plants in accordance with the settlement agreement recently reached with the employes after government intervention, according to dispatches to the Giornale D'Italia. In Turin, says a message from that city, three additional works were occupied today.

In fifty other works in Turin, the dispatch states, the majority of the men decided not to abandon the plants unless they received ample guarantees against reprisals from the masters and the government. They also are claiming payment of their wages for the period of their occupation of the works.

Communists Make Demonstration, Berlin

BERLIN, Sept. 21. Fifteen thousand communists held a demonstration in the Lustgarten today, the speakers violently attacking the independent socialists for declining to take part in the activities of the demonstrators who marched to the offices of the Freiheit, Vorwaerts and Tageblatt, and shouted denunciations at the editorial staffs.

Various other Berlin suburbs reported similar demonstrations, some accompanied by the use of explosives.

In Lichtenberg several thousand unemployed broke into a factory and forced the workers to leave.

Refuses to Recognize French Grand Lorge

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 22.—The grand lodge of Missouri, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, today reaffirmed its refusal to recognize the grand lodge of France and the Grand Orient of France, the action being based on the alleged atheistic tendencies of the French orders.

Grand Lodge Valle De Mexico for the Federal district of Mexico also was refused recognition, the grand lodge holding that the Mexican order was not legal.

Gompers Travels By Airplane

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 22—Missing his train at Buffalo, Samuel Gompers came her today by airplane. He is to address the convention of the American Association of Machinists tomorrow.

GERARD AND THOMPSON ON MONEY RAISING

Hard For Either Party Is Evidence Given Senators

Barnes Declares His Book Not Campaign Fund Raiser

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Details of the financing of the Democratic and Republican national campaigns were sought today by the senate investigating committee from James W. Gerard of New York, chairman of the Democratic national finance committee, and William Boyce Thompson, of New York, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Republican national committee.

Gerard testified that his committee had collected $123,821; declared that a national fund of $2,0000,000 would be sufficient for the Democratic campaign, and said he would be thankful if the committee raised $1,000,000. Contributors listed in records he produced included B. M. Baruch, $5,000; E. L. Doheny, $6,500; August Belmont, $5,000; Charles B. Alexander, $5,000, and Secretary of War Baker $50.

Gerard testified that the national fund would be separate from state campaign financing, adding that he did not know anything about the local organization.

None From Tammany?

Chairman Kenyon asked, "Is Tammany Hall raising money independently of your committee?"

"If you mean the regular organization of the Democratic party in New York City," Gerard replied, "I think it is."

"And you expect something from Tammany, too?" Senator Kenyon persisted.

"I hardly think so," Mr. Gerard said, "though their funds will help the ticket."

Gerard said "Democrats are poor and humble people," and Senator Kenyon asked about Mr. Baruch's personal possessions and those of several others named. "Rich men, Mr. Gerard announced, "were scarce as hen's teeth" in the Democratic ranks.

"So you have tried to get your committee made up of people close to the sources of wealth," the chairman proceeded, "so that they could make a touch?"

"Exactly," Mr. Gerard responded.

Only $123,821 So Far.

The witness produced a book from the record brought in which showed all the receipts of the national committee. The total, shown was $123,821.

"I see Mr. Baruch came to the rescue with $5000 according to the last item?" commented Chairman Kenyon.

"That is right."

"And E. L. Doheny gave another $5000," Chairman Kenyon read. "August Belmont, $5000; who is he?"

"Oh, he's a hereditary Democrat."

"Another $1,500 from Doheny," the Senator remarked, turning a page. "His oil interests are in Mexico aren't they?"

"He may have some in California," Mr. Gerard said. "He was a candidate for nomination for vice president before the Democratic convention."

The witness testified that Secretary of War Baker gave $50.

Senator Kenyon observed that W. Jouett Shouse, assistant secretary of the treasury, had given an unnamed amount.

"We accept subscriptions from office holders," Gerard said, "but I'm against asking them for money."

"Have you made any budget of expenditures?" Chairman Kenyon asked.

$100,000 For Cox Trip

"I have nothing to do with that," Mr. Gerard said. "I am informed that $100,000 is needed for expenses of Governor Cox's special train, and that Senator Harrison wants $100,000 for speakers' expenses. Franklin D. Roosevelt wants his expenses paid and has already received $10,000."

"I don't understand this game of paying speakers' expenses," said Senator Reed, Democrat, of Missouri. "I've always paid my expense in campaigns."

Ensuing discussion developed that Mr. Roosevelt was expected to give $5000.

Thompson said he had seven states and the District of Columbia particularly under his observation, and that all funds collected by his committee were turned over to Fred W. Upham, treasurer, of the national committee, and would appear in his records. He had a heated colloquy with Senator Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, regarding the total of the fund the Republicans sought.

The witness said the quota fixed for New York state by Mr. Upham was $1,600,000 and added that it was a "dead hard job" to get money, "with all this talk about slush funds and corrupt politics." He characterized such talk as "bar room politics."

Cox and Wall Street

"Now let's see about that," said Senator Reed. "The total for the country will amount to $7,000,000 when you get through."

"Your candidate is now talking about $30,000,000," Mr. Thompson said, pounding the table. "The Democrats have the Wall street committee this year. Cox is no stranger to Wall street, too."

"Where did he get this money?" Senator Reed asked.

"I have heard about securities, Ohio cities gas, railroads he has bought," replied Mr. Thompson.

"Do you know of Governor Cox speculating in Wall street?" Senator Reed demanded.

"I do not," Mr. Thompson replied. "All I have heard are the rumors." Both Senator Reed and Mr. Thompson finally agreed that "both Cox and Harding are fine, clean American citizens."

Senator Reed said he wanted to

COX TRAIN JUMPS TRACK; GOVERNOR ESCAPES INJURY

Many in Party Badly Hurt, on Santa Fe, Phoenix to Prescott; Shortens Speaking Trip

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 22.—Governor Cox and the two cars remaining of his wrecked special were brought here about 8:30 tonight, to be placed, with their added sleeping car, on the regular Arizona Eastern train. The governor was due at Albuquerque about 5 p. m. tomorrow, traveling via Deming.

"It was a miraculous escape," said the governor, "and I do not understand how there were so few injured."

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 22.—Governor James M. Cox's presidential campaign train was wrecked about 4:30 o'clock today, fourteen miles north of here, while en route to Prescott, Ariz.

The Democratic presidential candidate and his party were badly shaken up when an engine and four cars of the special were ditched, but all escaped serious injury. The most seriously injured was Charles A. Nicholas, engineer, of Prescott, who had a leg broken in jumping from his cab when his engine toppled over.

Spreading rails were assigned by railroad men as the cause of the wreck, which compelled the Governor and his party to return here tonight and cancel his evening's address at Prescott. His future itinerary also was upset.

Half Hour From Phoenix.

The accident occurred a half mile out of Peoria, a village on the Santa Fe railway. After Governor Cox delivered several speeches here, the train, consisting of six cars and drawn by two heavy engines needed for the upgrade to Prescott, left here at 4 o'clock. About a half hour later, while running at a speed estimated at between 35 and 40 miles an hour, the train jarred suddenly as if in collision and then application of the emergency brakes, bumping over broken rails and ties and careening of cars told passengers the story.

The four forward cars were ditched, the Governor's private car, the Federal, at the rear and the adjoining compartment car of newspapermen, except for its forward truck, remaining on the rails.

A baggage coach jumped the track about fifteen feet and turned over on its side. Two passenger coaches and another compartment car behind also was ten feet or less from the track and partly toppled over.

Second Engine Overturns.

The first engine of the doubleheader, Engineer F. C. Sutton, of Prescott, said, left the rails and then jumped on again. But the second engine toppled over amid a cloud of escaping steam. The tender of the forward engine also fell over, while the first passenger coach ran the length of the overturned baggage car and jammed its forward end into the trucks.

All passengers on all cars were thrown topsy turvey. Some suffered bruises and cuts from flying glass. In the rush for escape, several women passengers were put through broken windows.

Governor Cox was in the dining room of his private car going over papers with Dr. Robert C. Goldsmith, his assistant on the League of Nations question, when the crash occurred.

"What's that?" he shouted, rising to his feet, to be thrown heavily across the car into a steel wall. He was shaken up, but rushed out to assist the injured and soon was nonchalantly viewing the wreckage, smoking his pipe, and waiting for a wrecking train to arrive and take him back to Phoenix.

County Judge Bruised.

Of the passengers, including several of the local reception committees of Prescott and Phoenix, Judge H. E. Bollinger, Kingman, Arizona, of the Mojave county court, suffered a bruised leg. Personal effects of all members of the train were scattered and broken.

Charles Nicholas, the engineer, was taken to Phoenix in a passing automobile, and first aid was given to several others. Philip Atlon, Prescott, brakeman, who was alone in the baggage car when it turned over, suffered scalp lacerations. The fireman on the second engine was unable to jump and crawled from the wreckage without a scratch.

That Governor Cox escaped injury was due, it was said, to delay in a conference with the Prescott reception committee. J. J. Sinnott, representing the Democratic National Committee on the campaign trip and Chairman Norris of the Prescott committee were enroute to the private car to get the Governor to go forward to the first coach, where the reception committee was riding when the crash came. Most of those bruised or injured were in the forward coach.

Caused by Spreading Rail

The track was torn up for a distance of from 300 to 400 feet with bent rails, broken ties and glass strewn about, even in an adjacent cotton field. Railroad officials were unanimous in declaring that a spreading rail under the two heavy locomotives and unusually heavy steel equipment caused the wreck. The line is not a main artery but a branch of the Santa Fe System and the rails, it was said, were not of the heaviest type. A rumor was current among the farm people and others who gathered soon after the wreck that a man had been seen running along the road beside the track just before the train left the track, but the rumor lacked confirmation and was not credited by Governor Cox, members of his party or railroad operatives.

Among prominent local Democrats who were on the Governor's train to attend the Prescott meeting were United States Senator Henry F. Ashurst and W. L. Barnum, state national committeeman.

Cancels Appointments

Arrangements were made to have the Governor and his party taken from here to Albuquerque, N. M., where he was to speak tomorrow night, by a different route, leaving here at 9:30 p. m., and traveling on the Arizona Eastern Line to Deming, N. M. The change caused cancellation of engagements tomorrow in several Arizona and New Mexico towns. The Governor was due at Albuquerque late tomorrow afternoon.

The Governor was able to continue use of his private car and also one of the compartment cars for their members of the party. The other compartment car, however, was too badly wrecked to proceed.

URGE PERMIT LANDING, MIAMI

Carleton and McAdoo Appeal, But Colby Firm

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and William G. McAdoo, counsel for the company, in connection with the forthcoming communication conference, called on Secretary Colby today to urge that an executive permit be granted the Western Union for the landing at Miami, Florida, of the American end of a cable to the Barbadoes.

The state department has declined to act on the original request of the Western Union, filed some weeks ago, and recently had warships sent to Miami to prevent the landing of the cable. It was stated at the time that the department desired to know whether the Western Union's contract with the Western Cable Company, a British concern, covering the inter-change of business between the Barbadoes-Miami cable and that from Barbadoes to Brazil would strengthen the monopoly held by the British company in South America.

It was not indicated today that the department had not altered its decision not to act in advance of the international communications conference next month.

$200,000 Damage to Sinn Feiners

DUBLIN, Sept. 22.—The damage done by the "Black and Tans" in Balbriggan, in their raids Monday night and yesterday is estimated at $200,000.

Among the dwellings destroyed were those of Mrs. Andrew White, sister-in-law, of Eamonn De Valera, and Lawrence Flanagan, brother-in-law of De Valera.

SOCIALISTS TO RENEW FIGHT

Hope to Compel New York Assembly to Admit Members

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Harassed by the second ousting last night of its members from the New York assembly, the Socialist party will wage its November campaign more vigorously than if its representatives had been seated, declared Morris Hillquit, socialist leader, today.

In addition to returning the three ousted and the two resigned assemblymen "with increased majorities," the party will make special efforts to elect additional members from New York and other industrial centers of the state, Mr. Hillquit said. These men, he added, "will refuse to take their seats until the assembly fully surrenders to the principles of constitutional democracy."

"We were quite prepared for the action yesterday and shall go right ahead," said Mr. Hillquit, who was chief counsel for the socialists at their "trial" last winter.

"The Socialist party is determined to force the New York assembly to purge itself from the stain of lawlessness and to recognize the fundamental principles of representative government.

"The course pursued by the socialist assemblymen yesterday probably will be adhered to as a permanent party policy. We shall renominate the ousted men year after year, in general as well as in special elections and we have no doubt they will be returned with increased majorities every time."

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 22.—As the result of a long feud, Jose Lopez was shot and killed here this afternoon in the heart of the business district. Manuel Garcia, another Spaniard, was arrested by the police.

Lopez was out on bail for the attempted killing of Garcia last Saturday. A bullet from Lopez's gun passed through Garcia's coat but did not hit him authorities say.

JAPAN TO PRESS AMERICAN ISSUE

Agitation at Tokyo Over California Land Law Continues

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—(By The Associated Press)—The Japanese government as a result of yesterday's meeting of the cabinet will, in the first place, vigorously pursue the negotiations concerning American anti-Japanese legislation and, in the second place, will push firmly the question of racial equality in the League of Nations conference, according to the Hochi Shimbun today. These decisions will be considered further at today's meeting of the diplomatic advisory council, the newspaper says.

The labor unions, in conference here today, adopted resolutions pledging "harmonious co-operation with the Japanese laborers of California in their insistence upon their lawful rights." The resolutions were cabled to the California Labor Associations.

At a public meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall here today, Representative Kodama spoke on the subject "an Anti-American Japanese war." He denounced American militarism, saying that as long as a threatening nation existed beyond the Pacific, Japanese naval expansion cannot be dispensed with. Police interfered and silenced the speaker.

AN EXPENSIVE PEST.

Potato growers of the United States are paying $15,000,000 a year for Paris green and other arsenicals to protect their potatoes from the Colorado potato beetle. This does not include the labor involved in the application or the immense loss in yield caused by this beetle. It has been found in nearly all the western states except California. We must keep it out.

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL MEETING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Demonstrations in accident prevention and first aid work are featured in the program of the ninth annual meeting of the National Safety Council to be held in Milwaukee on September 27 to October 1, which is announced in the American Red Cross bulletin. First aid work will be demonstrated by the Red Cross bureau of first aid and the metal and mining sections of the National Safety Council.

Plans for a demonstration showing the occurrence of an accident and rendering first aid, then an investigation to fix the responsibility, have been made by J. R. Mulligan of the Bethlehem Steel Company, to be enacted by officers representing the Carnegie Steel Company, Midvale Steel and Ordnance Company, Cambria Steel Company and the Red Cross bureau of first aid. A new carbon monoxide detector also will be demonstrated as to its accident prevention and first aid value.

A questionnaire issued by the council, the bureau of mines and the Red Cross to ascertain the experience of industrial concerns with first aid endeavors, has been sent out. The answers are expected to form the basis of an effort by the council to standardize various affiliated organizations in first aid work.

Red Spots Not San Jose Scale

It is desired to call the attention of all inspectors to the fact that apples affected with blemishes referred to by various growers and shippers as "sun spots or aphis stings" but which closely resembles the red spot commonly associated with San Jose scale infection should not be confused with the latter. These red spots are entirely superficial amounting to nothing more than a red discoloration and are properly admitted to the California "B" Grade.

This condition is quite prevalent in the Watsonville District this season, hence this notice.

VETERANS WILL HOLD BANQUET

Company L Men Will Hold Anniversary Jollification

The banquet to mark the third anniversary of the formation of Company L, 185th Infantry will be held at the Fresno Hotel on October 30, it was decided last night at a meeting of the Veterans of Company L, held at the clubrooms of the American Legion. It is expected that there will be about 100 present at the gathering.

No set program will be prepared for the meeting, but spontaneity will be the order of the day and the stories of the service are expected to make the evening replete with memories of the days in the army.

Temporary officers were made permanent until the banquet at the meeting last night. It was decided to have an annual gathering and elect officers at this time to serve for the ensuing year.

A change was also made in the dates of admission to the organization when the date on Company L was extended to July 28, 1918, from June 15, 1918.

Report was made that former members of the company and the national guard companies from which it was formed have not been sending in their names to the secretary as fast as desired. Members of C and K of the Second California Infantry are asked to send in their names and affiliate with the new organization.

"When the solidly American people are the hyphen brought back into national affairs and with the attempt to divide our people in the interest of foreign aspirations and allegiance they may well beware.

"Speaking for myself and for Governor Cox, I say frankly, that we want all American votes only."

"I call upon Senator Harding and other Republican leaders to repudiate hyphenated allegiance and hyphenated politics," he said, "and especially the organizations formed in his behalf with hyphenated names. Those organizations have the effrontery to place the name of some other country first and America second."

It was the pledge of American honor to help create an association of nations to maintain the principles which we have stood for, which called into being a League of Nations. The league was written in fulfillment of a great ideal, and that it lives today is abundantly proved by the events of the past week, when one war stopped and another was averted by its instrumentality.

"Contrast this with the statement of Senator Harding before the veterans of the G. A. R., that the League of Nations is a 'stupendous fraud.'

"If it is a 'stupendous fraud,' why have thirty-nine nations joined? Why was it that among those which have recently entered was Switzerland, a nation held up through history as the exemplification of the love of liberty and complete independence?

"The United States has everything to gain and nothing to lose by leaving Russia, Mexico and Turkey and by becoming the fortieth nation in the concert of nations. The United States has everything to lose and nothing to gain by burying its head in the sand of a civilization that is a dead as the Pharaohs and the Roman emperors."

NEW $250,000 SPEEDWAY HERE IS COMPLETED

Ceremony of Driving the Last Nail Is Held at Grounds

Expect First Practice Spins Today or Friday

With fitting ceremony and Chris Jorgensen, chairman of the board of supervisors driving the last nail for the benefit of moving picture machines, the $250,000 speedway to be dedicated on October 2 with the San Joaquin Valley Classic race, was finished yesterday afternoon.

While workmen will be busy until the time of the race in finishing the guard rail, putting in additional brace work and doing other necessary details, yesterday marked the laying of the last 2x4 of the track itself and if the rumors arrive in time to see the track for the first time, it will be circled by speeding automobiles either today or tomorrow morning, speedway officials said yesterday. Present at the ceremonies yesterday for the benefit of a battery of motion picture operators were President Chase S. Osborne, Jr., of the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce, Secretary and Manager of the Fair, H. E. Patterson, Vic Price Scotty of The Republican, and Jack Prince of the Prince Speedway Construction company.

Built in Record Time.

Construction of the speedway was begun on October 2 and has been rushed to completion in record time, the builders confident that it is the best speedway which they have erected. Last details are all that remain to be cared for now, according to the officials and these will be completed in ample time for the holding of the race and the elimination trials.

Just who will have the honor of turning the track for the first time is uncertain. It is believed that Eddie Hearne and Eddie O'Donnell will arrive today and that being the case either one of the drivers will pilot the first car around the new oval.

The elimination trials on the speedway will not be held on Friday and Saturday of this week as contemplated at first owing to the late arrival of most of the drivers entered, but will probably be held between 6 and 8 o'clock in the morning on the days of fair week.

Gives High Commendation.

Starter Frank Lowry of the American Automobile Association, who has been connected with the racing game for over ten years past and knows every track in the United States, said yesterday that he believed that the speedway in Fresno was the best which had ever been built. He predicts that the speed attained in the fastest lap will average between 105 and 110 miles an hour while he expects the average to be around the 100-mile an hour mark for the 200-mile San Joaquin Valley Classic race. He expressed the opinion, however, that it is possible that holding the elimination trials in the morning and certainly lower the speed attained in the race as carburetors will be adjusted for the early morning hours and the carburetion problem will be different in the afternoon.

Henry Gerling, one of the backers of the company and who is financially interested in the speedway, expressed pleasure yesterday at the completion of the track and stated that he believed that the race on October 2 would set a new standard for American racing.

Seats Rapidly Selling.

It is probable that the seats for the race will be sold out days in advance, it was stated yesterday at fair headquarters as the grounds. The minimum required in advance seat sale was $50,000 and that amount has been reached in the disposal of the box seats, Secretary Patterson states. There are few more available, he states, and these are rapidly being taken.

On the day of the race cars are to be allowed in the oval inside the track, although tops must be left down in order not to obstruct the view.

Two national racing events are to be held yearly on the speedway, one the Raisin Day Classic and the other as the closing feature of the Fresno District Fair, the first of which will be the October 2 speed battle.

A receipt for the payment of $4,036.80 inheritance tax on the estate of the late Frank H. Bell was filed with the county clerk yesterday. According to the agent's report nine bequests totaling $17,000 were made to strangers. $10,000 to a sister, Cora M. Poulton while the share of the widow was $108,163.85.

Contractor Sued for Damage to Ranch

The Federal Construction company, contractors on various units of the county highway system, was yesterday made the defendant in a suit brought by Harry Raia for vandalism and destruction alleged to have been caused by its employes and agents on the plaintiff's ranch.

In his complaint he claims that "with violence and strong hand and by force" doors, windows and parts of the dwelling were broken open and torn down, that the barn and sheds were damaged, that fences were torn down, and a crop of alfalfa injured by heavy trucks and construction implements having been driven over it, the sum for $1,000 damages.

DISTURBANCE NOT TO AFFECT WEATHER NOW

Bonnett, Weather Man, Outlines Storm at New Orleans

On account of extensive low barometric pressure over the Sierras, the weather was partly cloudy and unsettled in northern California yesterday, but no rain fell at any reporting station except a trace at Sacramento. At 5 p. m. it was cloudy or foggy on the southern California coast but the sky had cleared in other parts of the state and a well defined area of low pressure lingered over Arizona with reports over Arizona will probably not affect local weather.

A number of inquiries were made at the weather bureau office as to whether the tropical storm reported from New Orleans would move this way, to which W. E. Bonnet, observer in charge, answered "our weather is never affected by those storms." He predicted weather here Wednesday following close to the low pressure over the Plateau."

"The tropical disturbance in the south," continued Bonnet, "over the West Indies and moving westward in the Gulf region, on the American coast variously from Key West, Florida to Corpus Christi, Texas and then more northward with diminishing intensity after reaching the mainland.

"To warn shipping and other interests of these storms the weather bureau maintains a number of special observing stations in the West Indies and on the Gulf and south Atlantic coasts from May to October, the months during which these storms occur."

Y. W. Architect to Be Here, Board Meeting

Miss Julia Morgan of San Francisco, Pacific coast architect of the Young Women's Christian association will be in Fresno today to confer with the board at 10 a. m. on the planning of the new building and to aid in preliminary arrangements.

Miss Morgan planned a number of the hostess houses used during the war and the buildings under the industrial department and at that time was in New York headquarters office as a member of the national staff.

A. Brucia et al were made the defendants in an action brought yesterday by P. Grassi and G. Paolini, fruit growers, for alleged breach of sales contract. The growers allege a sudden and inexplicable refusal by the defendant to take the remainder of their crop, after some early deliveries, damaged them in the sum of $9,725. Judgment for that amount is asked.

Two divorce actions were instituted yesterday. They were Adelina MacBain against Earl G. MacBain, and Alice Ennis against Ben Ennis.

BARCELONA, Spain, Sept. 22.—Antonio Juan Casco and Pedro Jimenez Carrillo have been arrested on suspicion that they were responsible for the explosion of a bomb in the Pompeya theater last week, which caused several deaths.

Legal Battle Over Auto Stage Depot

A legal battle for the possession of the new stage terminal at J and Stone streets will be fought out in the superior court following the filing yesterday of an ejection action against the Interurban Auto Stage Terminal association, the lessee of the building, by J. M. Rustigian, the owner.

Through his attorneys, Harris and Hayhurst, the plaintiff accuses the terminal association of moving into his property in alleged violation of the lease and without legal warrant. He asks that the defendants acknowledge the lease or be removed and seeks actual damages of $2,000 and punitive damages amounting to $2,500.

ARRESTED FOR BEGGING.

David Saval was arrested yesterday by Inspector Merritt at the Y. M. C. A. on a charge of vagrancy. According to the police, $11.32 was found on the man's person in addition to several dollars worth of postage stamps. He was given 10 days in jail when he pleaded guilty today by Secretary L. L. Allen of the Merchants' association of Fresno. The building situation in Fresno and environs is to be discussed and the building material credit situation will also have its share of the evening's program.

Mrs. A. V. Flood Is Summoned By Death

Mrs. Amelia V. Flood, a resident of California for the past twenty-seven years, died yesterday following a brief illness at her home, 1915 Fresno street. She leaves a husband, J. F. Flood, and the following children, Hazel Everton, Walter Everton, Mrs. Grace Upton, Mrs. Belle Dawson, Mrs. Grace Robbins and Mrs. Claude Lasher. She was 64 years of age and a native of Illinois. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Stephens and Dean.

Material Dealers to Meet Tonight

The Fresno Building Material Dealers' association will meet tonight at 8 o'clock to a called meeting at the Commercial club, it was announced yesterday by Secretary L. L. Allen of the

Busy Meeting For Supervisors Friday

From present indications the session of the board of supervisors tomorrow afternoon will be busy one. A half dozen matters of more or less importance are scheduled for consideration. At 2 p. m. the bids for the purchase of the Orange Cove grammar school bond issue of $15,000 will be opened, fifteen minutes later bids to furnish 2,000 tons of gravel for road district No. 1 will also be opened.

At 2:30 o'clock the board will receive a delegation from Fowler which will request the financial aid of the county in the laying of the mile stretch within the city limits of the link connecting the Adams avenue unit of the county road system with the state highway.

A conference on the jurisdiction of the work of the visiting nurse is scheduled for 3 o'clock.

STATE PARTY PLATFORMS

The party platforms announced at Sacramento are weak, wobbly and evasive enough, but at worst they are infinitely better than the state party platforms used to be, before the progressives set the example of saying something and meaning it. Reforms never go backward, and even the bottom of the ebb is far higher than the level was before the flood commenced. The old platforms were simply long-winded guff, written by the party orators, saying nothing about anything. The progressive platforms of the past ten years have been definite lists of the things the party would do if elected. This year's platforms say less, and they evade much, but they are at least a partial appeal to partial intelligence. We have made some permanent gain which even this year could not quite lose.

Of course neither party could make any reference to prohibition. That being the principal state issue before the people this year, obviously the parties, as the recognized organizations through which the people divide on issues, could not divide on this one. That might have made them fulfill their function as parties, which is the last thing in the world any loyal party man wants. This applies especially to the Republican party. Prohibition was a Republican party policy in California. The Republican party declared for it last time and won the victory under Governor Stephens on it. Senator Harris, as chairman of the Republican convention and therefore as party leader of platform matters, introduced the enforcement bill, the principal platform measure in the legislature, and it was passed, chiefly by Republican votes, aided by the vigorous backing of a Republican Governor. Now, under referendum, the Republican party platform measure is before the people, for approval or rejection. Quite naturally the Republican convention could not take any action indorsing the Republican party record and urging the people to sustain it. That would come too near to the principle of "party responsibility," and since the chief preachers of that principle are now in power, naturally it would never do to practice it.

Similar considerations doubtless actuated the side-stepping of all expression on the attempt to use the initiative to kill the initiative, in proposition No. 4 on the ballot. The initiative was a Republican policy, first proposed to California in the Republican platform of 1910, and placed in the constitution under the leadership of Republican Governor Johnson, who made the principal speech in this convention, vigorously assisted by Governor Stephens, who made the opening speech. Now for the first time this Republican policy is seriously assailed. Therefore the Democrats adopted a plank indorsing this Republican policy and urging the people to sustain it, but the Republicans, naturally, had to side-step it. It would not be loyal Republicanism to ask a Republican convention to have the courage to indorse a Republican record on a Republican policy. The Better America Federation might not like it, and we might lose some votes. So let us be cowardly and safe.

There was only one question on which both conventions were unanimous and courageous. That was anti-Japanese. The Japanese have no votes. There is nothing to lose. So swat them! All other questions can be sidestepped on the convenient pretext that parties should not declare themselves on measures on the ballot, since these are for the people and not for the legislature to decide. This measure is likewise on the ballot, and is No. 1 on it. But it is the exception. The Japanese have no votes. It is safe.

This may not sound like very high praise of the state party platforms. But it is intended as praise. Both platforms are a lot better, in courage and intelligence, than we used to have when the party was "harmonious" before. The intervening era of disharmony has registered a great and permanent gain. The Democratic platform this time is only a little more Republican than the Republican platform. And both are entitled to the respectful consideration which probably nobody will give either.

PARTY "HARMONY" ACHIEVED

"For the first time in a generation" say the reports of the Sacramento convention, "the Republican party of California is united and harmonious."

Quite likely. And why not? For a "generation" (newspaper reporters' memories are short, and they think a dozen years are a generation) the sole obstacle to Republican harmony in California has been the irregularity of the "regulars." That obstacle is now removed. Nobody has to be regular now but the irregulars, and obviously they must do that, in the interest of the party harmony which the regulars always preached to them, but never practiced for themselves. When the insurgents won, naturally the regulars had to insurge. When the non-partisans were in control, naturally the partisans had to be non-partisans. When the nominations went to Republicans of doubtful orthodoxy, naturally the orthodox had to vote the Democratic ticket. And so there was party discord. But now that the regulars are in control, naturally the irregulars must be regular. To do otherwise would be to be unfaithful to the principle of regularity. Progressives must vote conservative, for fear of being suspected of being progressive; the unorthodox must vote orthodox, lest some one think them unorthodox; and partisanship is the highest duty of the non-partisan, if he is to avoid the reproach of non-partisanship. It is only the regular orthodox partisans who have the privilege of irregularity, unorthodoxy and non-partisanship. For their principle is that party harmony, for the sake of party victory, is the supreme consideration, and therefore it is their right to break party harmony and defeat the party whenever their faction can not run it. But the others must not do that. The irregulars must practice the virtue which the regulars only preach.

And somehow, that is what they do. The Republican party having nominated a reactionary for President and a reactionary for Senator, most of the progressive leaders, as in duty bound, are out particularly strong for both. Party harmony has been achieved by the only method which the harmonizers will tolerate—the total and unconditional surrender of the progressives. It is a great and glorious victory, in which the progressives loyally profess to be particularly rejoiced. Really, it is touching!

PROGRESSIVE CONVENTION FARCE

The process of keeping the Progressive party unburied is unsavory enough, at best, but this year is at least an improvement on last time. This year the one lone delegate who constituted himself the Progressive party convention was a negro named Fowler, from Alameda, who had received the few votes cast by registered Progressives in his district (presumably his own and those of a few friends) and had thereby formally received the Progressive nomination for the legislature. He assembled, elected himself chairman, delivered a keynote speech to himself, and adopted a platform advocating his own election. It was a farce, of course, but he went through it and did no harm.

Two years ago the farce was much more annoying. This year's delegate, while a negro, is for all that appears a perfectly reputable one, who makes an honest living and conducts himself decently. Two years ago the convention consisted of an unsavory bum named Alva Udell of San Francisco, and of two other derelicts whom he had picked up somewhere for beer money. The platform consisted of a declaration that anybody had a right to drink all he could get. Between that sort of a white man and a respectable negro of course the negro is infinitely preferable.

However, it is fortunate that the farce will stop with this year. When the Progressive party was alive, it was a very inspiring party. But it was one of the casualties of the war, and now it is dead. Like other corpses, it should be buried.

DAVE, REFORMER

Our congratulations to Fresno Dave on his victory as leader of the reform Democrats at Sacramento! Our Dave, to be sure, is graduate of a school of what was once thought very practical politics, and he was once reputed to have been a very practical practitioner thereof. "T'eodor" Bell, on the contrary, began in a school of ostensibly idealistic politics. T'eodor was a reformer and Dave was a performer. But T'eodor has come down and Dave has gone up. As Dave has grown older, he has learned more, while as T'eodor has grown older he has forgotten much, including all his reform. We are not accusing Dave even yet of dwelling in the clouds. Doubtless he aims to keep his feet on the ground. But at least he has known how to use them to walk forward on the road, while T'eodor has got off the track entirely. So when the drys ran Dave as the reform candidate, and won a notable victory (with a pocket full of proxies) for him over T'eodor, chief performer of the wets, it was not so funny as some old timers might think. Tempora mutantur, et nos mutamur in illis. Which, being interpreted so Democrats can understand it, means—the world do move, and Dave has got a move on with it. So congratulations to David S. Ewing, of Fresno, the new reform leader of the dry democracy!—It was a famous victory.

Wendell Easton, projector of the Washington Colony, has written the superintendent here to have accommodations for fifty or sixty cows ready by Wednesday next. Any of the colonists wishing to purchase a good cow can get one on easy terms by applying to the superintendent of the Washington Colony.

Fifty thousand sheep have been shorn up-to-date at Fresno. The cool weather is bringing the sheep back from the mountains. Caruthers' band of 9000 sheep were finished up yesterday at Foster's shearing yards.

The excavation is almost completed for the building to be erected by T. W. Patterson on the northeast corner of J and Tulare streets.

Ten Years Ago Today

Four thousand acres of land near Clovis, formerly owned by J. D. Collins and Mrs. G. D. McLaughlin, have been sold to a party of Eastern capitalists for a consideration said to be $250,000. The transfer was made by the Teague Investment Company.

DUST

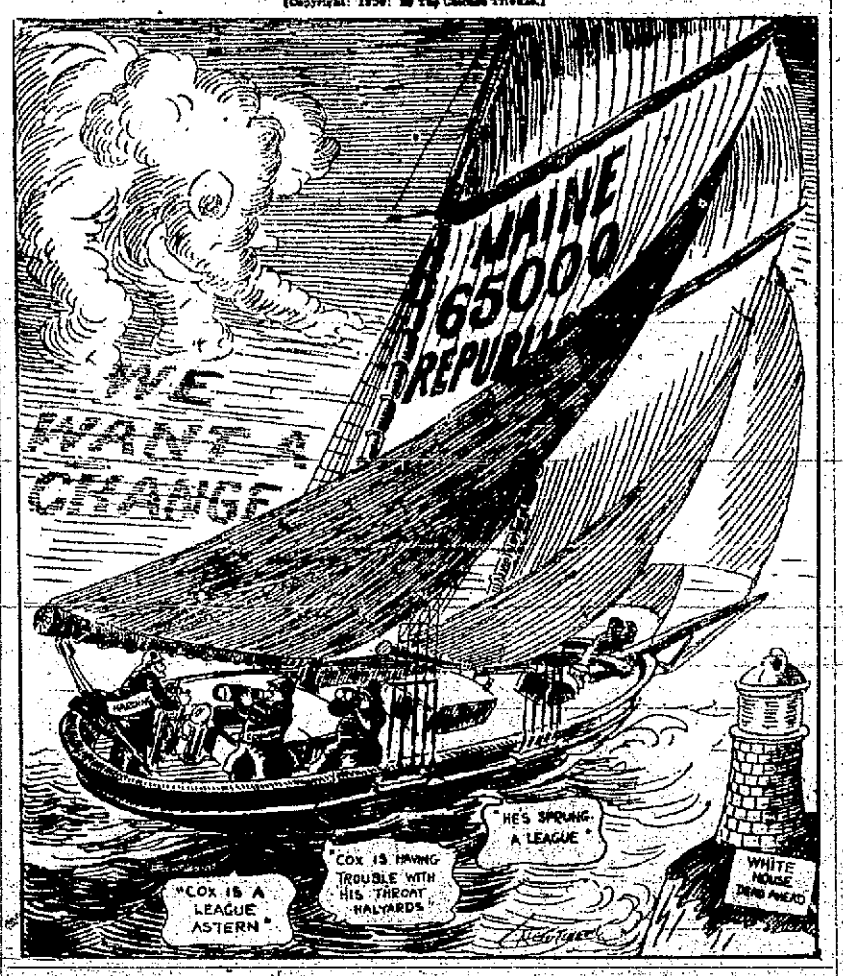

When I was a child I made mud pies,
The loveliest pies in the world!
They seemed to rise like butterflies,
Each with its edge upcurled.
So, full to the top with childish dreams,
I stuffed the confiscating crust,
And some were filled with chocolate creams
And some with hope and trust.
Yet I toiled and toiled
To find them spoiled
When they dried and turned to dust.

And so it is with my dreams today,
The loveliest dreams in the world!
From Ultchy to far Cathay,
The silver sails unfurled.
They skim the waters of Romance
Through storms of hate and lust,
To dock at last in the Port of Chance
Half wrecked and red with rust,
With the fairy gold
That lay in the hold
Crumbled and turned to dust.

So I sometimes think that the Sons of Men
Are only the dreams of God,
Within His ken the babe again
Is molded out of the clod,
Among his fellows, lit with fire,
The living dream is thrust,
Yet be he thrilled with high desire,
Or be he meek or just
The light of grace
Forsakes his face
When the dying dream turns dust.

IS DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR N. Y. SECRETARY

Underwood & Underwood

Harriet May Mills, first woman ever nominated for this office. Miss Mills is running on the Democratic ticket for secretary of state of New York, and according to political gossip there is every likelihood that she will be elected. It is expected that she will poll an enormous woman vote in the state.

VEILLER'S FATHER HAD FIRST MOVIE WAY BACK IN 1896

More light has been thrown on the old query, "Who made the first motion pictures?" in a letter just received by Bayard Veiller, dramatist and author, in charge of Metro's West Coast story producing department.

The letter is from Eugene Lauste, inventor of a talking movie picture, who recognized in the name of "Veiller" that of a pioneer of the film business.

"Are you really the Bayard Veiller who in 1896 bought the Edidoscope Company, the first moving pictures ever projected?" wrote Mr. Lauste.

"No, but my father, Phillip Bayard Veiller, then a Wall Street broker, was the pioneer referred to," replied the playwright, who was responsible for "Within The Law," "The Thirteenth Chair," and other notable stage successes.

Which brought out the story of a long forgotten device that had a brief and rather forlorn career on the rim of New York's amusement world at that time.

The elder Veiller was interested in the contrivance that was explained as a "scheme for taking pictures separately, then putting them together and showing them in such a way as to indicate movement." He immediately purchased the rights to it, thereby obtaining control of what purported to be a picturization of a Spanish bull fight.

A store was rented down Broadway, converted into something approaching a theater, and the new device was offered for public approval. But, somehow, the public didn't seem greatly excited over the opportunity to see "pictures fitted together in such a way as to indicate movement."

The persevering backer of the new device had many plans for spreading interest, each of which was greeted by a smaller audience. Finally he locked the door and put the machine in a dark closet, or threw it away; or did whatever else disgusted financiers do with unproductive ventures, thus putting that chapter of the history of the film business.

Classical Dancer Uses the Outdoors For Her Stage

Lefa La Vine

An ardent advocate of outdoor training is Miss Lefa La Vine, a pretty classical dancer, who is creating quite a favorable impression in New York. Each day the pretty dancesue practices on the roof of a New York hotel, far from curious eyes and still in the great outdoors. During the war she danced at a fete on the lawn of the White House, and President Wilson enthusiastically applauded her performance.

I am now constructing six store rooms in Tombo for commercial purposes in the very best locations.

LABOR AND USE OF THE INJUNCTION

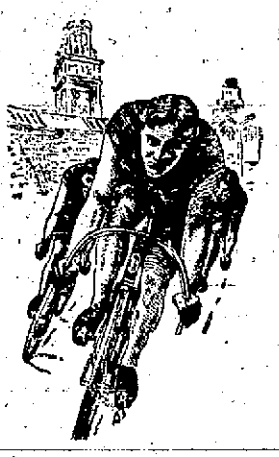

Editor Republican:—For a number of years labor has persistently and honestly fought the injunction law. No sympathy was ever shown by the very ones who thought that they were exempt from its drastic action, for they felt secure within themselves. While we have fought an honest fight in the open, we have momentarily lost, and principally by acts of men who are politicians—men who are after office principally and care very little for the people's real needs. It was not because labor was wrong, or used questionable methods to defeat this kind of law—a law for the very few, against the whole people.

As a rule the American people eat, not a thing for their neighbors, so long as individually they feel secure, and we are sorry to say that the farmer has always been the last one to realize this—the farmer who feels that he is a capitalist, and, too, the merchant who has to depend on prosperity from the products of the soil or factory (which cannot be produced without labor) for his business and profits. Whenever these people join the class who are trying to rule this country and its business by methods questionable to the good of the whole country, and especially by "injunction, the last resort," they are not co-operative association any country has ever produced, then we have proved without a doubt that we are right in fighting this law, and any member of our law-making bodies who opposed us. Our promises of Order of Railway Conductors have opposed this law, and the last legislature, if I am not in error, passed a bill curbing the injunction law, and our present governor used the pocket veto upon it. Now what is the consequence? Let the farmer look the record over and see who is for the best interests of the state—the ones who use methods to grind the mass for all profits possible for a few, or the ones who believe in good government, good business, liberal profits, fair wages, happy homes, prosperity. We hope this will be a lasting lesson, as it affects every man, woman and child—their very existence. Therefore the raisin association has our moral support as an organization, and we will assist in any way we can to preserve its good work.

E. J. McDEVITT,
Secretary,
Order of Railway Conductors.

AURORA, Ill., Sept. 22.—Baseball people, played by thousands of persons throughout the Fox River Valley were stopped by police yesterday in Aurora and Elgin and in most of the smaller towns. The police said their action was in line with action to be taken over the whole country. Men, boys and women have been playing the pools.

NATURE STUDY IN VACATION IS URGED BY JUDGE

Disagrees With McCormick Plan to Hold School All Year

Would Have Them Visit Industrial Plants, Also Mountains

The suggestion of year-round school for the children of California made by Judge M. F. McCormick to Superintendent of Schools Wood recently meets with a divergent opinion from Police Judge Herbert Briggs. Admitting that the school children should be kept under the administrators' rule the year around, Judge Briggs states that it would be unjust and impractical to have the children remain in the school room twelve months of the year. He suggests that the children be taken through various manufacturing plants, and explained the workings of the institutions. He also suggests the study of nature by the students during vacation time, in the mountains, on ranches and in the country.

Judge Briggs expresses his opinion in the following:

"I agree with Judge McCormick that much good to be accomplished by making the school useful to the child and the community the year around. I also believe that many juvenile offenses would be prevented by keeping the children busy. However, I think it is neither practical nor desirable to keep children in the school room for twelve months a year.

"I believe that there is a field for education work which might be occupied that would serve the purpose much better than school room. Almost all children, and grown ups too for that matter, are lamentably ignorant of the nature amidst which they live. The average person knows nothing of the names and habits of birds or flowers.

"In my opinion it would be worth while to take the children of the city into the country to learn something of the work on the ranches. If possible take them into the mountains to study nature there. How many children know anything of the work done in our packing houses? How many know anything about how ice is made. All children like ice cream, but would it not be worth while to take them all the way from the cow that furnishes the milk to the container that brings it to their home.

"By the use of the moving picture much knowledge concerning not only nature but the history of our country, state and valley could be imparted. The field is almost limitless and could easily be made useful during two or three months of a year. The child would be kept busy and interested, its mind kept clean and its body healthy. I do not believe that you would need any compulsory education laws to keep children at the kind of work I have suggested.

"I expect that some will be of the opinion that children under sixteen years of age are not capable of doing this kind of work to an advantage. That is a matter of opinion, and my opinion is that if they do not secure this kind of knowledge before they are sixteen years of age most of them never will.

READING CLERK OF HOUSE HERE

P. J. Halligan to Address Normal Students This Morning

P. J. Halligan, reading clerk of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., who is lecturing on a tour of California, is now in Fresno and will speak before local audiences using his two lectures, "The American Congress" and "The National Capital." The first lecture will be delivered this morning at the Fresno State Normal school when Halligan will speak at 10 o'clock to the student body.

He is also to speak before the Fresno post of the American Legion at its meeting tonight and hopes to arrange a lecture for legion men and women either Friday or Saturday evening, he said. He is to speak to the high school student body on Monday and Monday night will address the students of St. John's Catholic school under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus.

Both of the addresses are illustrated by colored stereopticon slides, but at the address this morning at the normal school the subject matter of the two addresses will be condensed in order to occupy the hour allowed. About seventy-five slides will be used at the lecture this morning.

In addition to coming to California to lecture about Washington, Halligan plans to lecture about California in Washington and vicinity, and states that he has gained a great deal of material which will be used in lectures to be given through the winter on California. This is his first visit to the state.

Halligan has been reading clerk of the House of Representatives for the last ten years, a position unique and exacting and one for which men are fitted. In addition to a thorough knowledge of legislative procedure, the reading clerk must be possessed of an unusual voice, for he calls the roll for quorum and voting and even reads the President's message when the President is unable to attend in person. In addition the work of attaching amendments to bills and sending them on their way to the Senate in the proper form falls upon the shoulders of the reading clerk and when a bill is amended until it has lost all trace of its former identification, this becomes a complicated task, he states.

Halligan was called to California to act as clerk for the Democratic convention in San Francisco and since that time has been all over the state travelling and lecturing. He plans to leave Fresno Tuesday.

Fresno Attorneys Off to State Meet

According to President Hayhurst of the local bar association, the chief discussion at the convention of lawyers will be over a proposed bill, fostered by the Southern California associations, to curb the practice of law by trust companies and their employes.

Originally the Fresno representation included the names of Henry Hawson and Ben R. Johnson but due to the pressure of important business these attorneys were compelled to forego the trip.

GRACEFUL IN TAFFETA

With emphasis being given to the long, low waist, this dress proves of absorbing interest; it is fashioned of myrtle green taffeta and has a two-piece tunic with bib front. Narrow soutache braid outlines the tunic and, not the least attractive feature of the dress is a girdle of novelty ribbon. The round neck may or may not have a collar, and previsien is likewise made for long sleeves if preferred. Medium size requires 5¼ yards 36-inch material.

I will not be responsible for bills contracted by anyone but myself. F. McCLELLAND.

FINE PROGRESS ON SEWER WORK

Officials Also Pleased Over Paving Work On Belmont

Hardpan described as the worst ever seen in the vicinity is not preventing the trench machine employed by the city from making fine progress on the north Fresno sewer job. The machine is now within a block and one-half of the city limits on Harrison, and according to reports, is averaging 350 feet per day.

Charles Dillon, city clerk, received information yesterday that two trench machines are enroute from Chicago, and as soon as these are here they will be put to work on the north Fresno job.

More than one city official has a word of praise for the progress that is being made on the sewer job, and according to the city attorney, W. E. Simpson, who was out making a survey of the situation yesterday, the city job is "coming fine."

Another matter of gratification yesterday to city officials was that actual construction on paving Belmont avenue, which has been impossible for weeks, was begun during the day by the contractor, the Federal Construction Co. Mayor Toomey is informed that the work will be completed on Belmont from Orchestria to Barstone within the next six days. The local representative of the Federal company assured the city trustees at their last meeting that work would be undertaken on that street this week, and it would be pushed to completion.

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES.

The California Associated Raisin Company yesterday brought an action for specific performance of a raisin delivery contract covering a term of three years, against L. Kruse, a grower. The action centers around the delivery of fifty-five tons of Thompson seedless raisins, alleged to have been the production of the Kruse vineyard.

Judge Allen McCormick yesterday ordered the exoneration of cash bail of $500 deposited for Armen Tufenkjian, who was placed on probation by Judge H. Z. Austin in the juvenile court.

A statutory action against P. G. Eldridge and M. Winters was yesterday finally dismissed in the superior court due to the lack of evidence. The court ordered an exoneration of their bail.

BANK TRANSFER DATE UNCERTAIN

Any Day May See Union-National Bank Assets Taken Over

Only legal formalities remain to be completed in the merger of the Union National Bank of Fresno with the San Joaquin-Sacramento bank, but it is not known here what date the final transfer will take place, according to W. G. Miles, president of the Union National bank. The transfer was brought into prominence again yesterday by the announcement from Stockton that the deed covering the Farmers' and Merchants' bank building had been recorded, marking the completion of the merger with the J. M. Henderson, Jr. banks of Sacramento.

In completing the Fresno bank transaction nothing remains but to call over the records of the institution and its charter and disarmorize the Union National bank, said Miles.

Miss Ella Johnson Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"My trouble began as small pimples and in a few months they got worse and my forehead was just a mass of large pimples. They were hard and red and caused me to scratch, and I was disfigured for the time. They made me embarrassed when out in company. I tried sassafras tea but it was of no help. I saw a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent for a free sample. After using them I bought more, and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment for about a month I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Ella May Johnson, Box 65, Camas, Idaho, March 9, 1920.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are all you need for all toilet uses. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. X, Malden 48, Mass." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

NEW YORK SEES NO OLD TIME PLAYS

Alexander Woollcott in New York Times

The prophets tell us we shall be diverted this season with a revival of "Erminie." Once more we shall behold Francis Wilson in his agitated quest (this time of DeWolf Hopper) and hear him murmuring wistfully: "I wonder where Ravvy is"—surely the most plaintive of memories, save possibly the frightened quaver of Jimmy Powers in "The Runaway Girl," when they bade him be a couzier and he used to answer: "But I can't coo."

This news that "Erminie" is to be brought to life again is a fresh reminder of how infrequently does our theater have recourse to its diversions of other seasons. Once in a while, it is true, a comic opera that had its vogue ten or twenty years ago is resuscitated to recapture old affections and engage some new ones. Thus all the town was humming "Tell Me Pretty Maiden" again last spring, and they say "The Chocolate Soldier" is impending now.

When the spring of each year is likely to see some such horrendous favorites of bygone days as "Jim the Penman" or "The Lights o' London," pretentiously restaged more as a curiosity than as a play. It is true that some one is always hopefully taking "Trilby" down off the shelf. Then certain of our stars, notably David Warfield, are wont in times of stress to revert to some earlier role to piece out a season. Thus Mrs. Fiske has been known to go back comfortably to "Becky Sharp" and Mrs. Bumpstead Leigh," and might do so again at a moment's notice, while Miss Adams is never quite finished with a Barrie play, and Margaret Anglin, starting off on tour in some new play, is as likely as not to be reported from San Francisco as enchanting all California with "Lady Windermere's Fan."

But for the most part, once a play has run its course in New York it never returns. Now and again, as with Ben-Hur," or "The Bird of Paradise," or "Twin Beds," it develops into an institution and goes junketing around the country forever and ever. The simpler and sturdier pieces have an intermittent life in the few remaining stock companies, and they all have their prosperous sequel in the movies. But New York sees them no more. The chances are, for instance, that we shall not see "Beyond the Horizon" again and that we have laughed at "Clarence" for the last time. It is too bad.

This streak of wastefulness in the economy of our theater is always a source of melancholy reflection, and, to any playgoer fresh from the spectacle of so dire a diversion as "Paddy the Next Best Thing," and so undistinguished a comedy as that on which Mr. Belasco's skill and patience have been squandered at the Empire, it is also a matter of ever-renewed wonderment. You would think, for example, that Mr. Belasco could derive considerably more fun and possibly more revenue for his bill if, in default of a happier new script, he had devoted the same time and space to a revival of some comedy at which the town was all in chuckles a dozen years ago. But as he is an expert in both matters, he probably knows some crushing answer to this suggestion.

However, leaving aside the question of presumptive profit, it is certain there would be a great rejoicing among chronic playgoers if, some bright morning, the newspapers were to be gay with the following highly imaginary announcement:

"David Belasco has taken over the Garden theater for an indefinite period and will inaugurate his season there four weeks from tonight. For the purpose he is assembling the nucleus of a resident company of younger players, who will appear successively in ten plays, each a favorite of some former season and each to remain in the bill as long as the patronage warrants. The tentative list of these revivals as drawn up by Mr. Belasco is as follows:

"The Poor Little Rich Girl."
"Pomander Walk."
"The Easiest Way."
"Seven Keys to Baldpate."
"Justice."
"A Successful Calamity."
"The County Chairman."
"Candide."
"What Every Woman Knows."
"The Phantom Rival."

Such an announcement would probably provoke a livelier anticipation than any yet made for the season now opening. It is possible, even probable, that the venture would make very little if any money. But there are more workers in the theater who would be indifferent on that score than the cartoons in the comic weeklies might lead you to suspect.

Of course, there would be plenty of people at each revival who would be audible in the lobby as follows: "Ah, but you should have seen Mopsie Laverne do that fall from the mantelpiece!" or "Somehow they don't seem to have the actors they used to have." Then, too, there would be plenty to dispute as to what was worth reviving at all. Certain cherished memories of the theater could scarcely be recaptured except by an odd and special convergence of director, decorator and company. For example, the Garden Players or the Belasco Buskins, or whatever they might be called, would probably not dare attempt such difficult enchantments as "Sumurun," "Pierrot the Prodigal," "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," or "The Gods of the Mountain." Then, too, some plays—such as "Becky Sharp" and "Peter Pan"—are so indelibly stamped with the players first associated with them as to be intimidating to other players within the memory of the first performance.

But such a list as above set forth—well, it would be fun to know that this season we were to thrill again the Alice-in-Wonderland delirium of the poor little rich girl, hear the old admiral wheezing once more outside No. 1 Pomander Walk, submit to the perfect madness on Baldpate mountain, and hear, under the window of Laura Murdock's boarding house room the hurdy-gurdy strains of "Bon, Bon Buddie, My Chocolate Drop."

However, no such luck.

News Jottings and Personal Notes of Valley Residents

OAKDALE PLANS FOR PAVING.

OAKDALE, Sept. 22.—City Attorney Reid has been instructed to take steps at once to secure a dedication of West Railroad avenue from the Southern Pacific railroad in order that the city may begin on its paving program. Until this is done paving operations must be held up. The railroad company two years ago made an agreement to turn over its right of way for street purposes to the city, on condition that it be not held liable for taxes or special assessments. The agreement, however, gave the railroads a right to revoke it at any time, and because of this the city board has found that it cannot pave the right of way, because it has no authority to spend money upon property which it does not own.

SPRINGVILLE BREVITIES.

SPRINGVILLE, Sept. 22.—With the coming of cooler weather, the cattlemen of this vicinity are beginning to bring their herds down from the countains to their winter quarters in the valley and foothills. The Gill brothers passed through Springville Tuesday morning with a portion of their herds, bound for the Gill ranches in Frazier Valley; the herds of J. Valdez of Success were also taken out Tuesday. The first of the week, Ollie McKiernan of the Deer Creek region, drove his cattle out. Jerry Becker of Globe has a portion of his cattle rounded up and will probably bring them down soon.

The first lumber from Enterprise Mill, the new saw mill recently installed at Mt. Home by Messrs. Eisler and Coburn, is being hauled to Springville where it will be shipped out to the valley trade. A planing mill will be located near the soda spring in the near future and the lumber will then be finished before being shipped.

J. R. Talley motored to Tulare Tuesday, there to make the final arrangements and meet his party who will accompany him on a deer hunt in the high Sierras. Mr. Talley plans to start from Springville the last of the week.

Burr Foster, who has been in the valley for some time, is spending a few days visiting in Springville.

R. C. Blossom and family recently returned from a business trip to Nevada where they have been for the past three weeks. The trip was made by motor and a very pleasant outing was enjoyed.

Messrs. E. A. Lind and Wm. Taylor left Tuesday morning for Los Angeles where they will attend the tractor demonstration to be held there. Mr. Lind and Mr. Taylor will travel by auto.

Test for Maturity

By A. E. MURNEEK

Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station.

"How ripe is my fruit?" "Are my Bartletts, Bosc, Howells, Anjous, etc. ready to pick?" "What are the signs, anyway, by which one may tell the approximate stage of maturity of a pear or of an apple?" Such questions are often heard from growers, as the time of harvesting one's crop approaches.

There will be many who will tell you to go by the size and pick when the fruit has reached a certain diameter. Others will point to changes in color of the skin as a much safer guide. Still others will reply on testing for sugar, either by chewing a slice or applying what is known as the iodine test for sugar, which is really a test for starch. But many an orchardist, very, many to be sure, will begin to pick his pears or apples when, or because, his neighbor does so, who in turn may have been influenced by someone else. Thus it is readily seen that there is no reliable test or measurement in use by which one may determine the exact stage of ripeness of fruit.

Aware of this situation, the section of horticulture research of the Oregon agricultural experiment station has for several seasons endeavored to find a simple but reliable test for pears, and, if possible, apples also. Of the various methods under consideration a simple one known as a "pressure" test, has given very satisfactory and reliable results in measuring the maturity of pears. It has been given extensive and thorough trial for two seasons with almost all leading varieties of pears and a few varieties of apples. We feel at this time that in order to prove its usefulness this test should be given a wider practical application.

The "Iron Thumb"

Testing by means of this method is accomplished by a mechanical device or apparatus, especially constructed for the purpose. Briefly, the apparatus consists of a blunt, rounded plunger running through a jacket and connected with a lever. A movable ring, separated from the stationary jacket by a spring, runs over the top of the plunger to a definite distance when contact is made with the stationary jacket, causing an electric bell to ring. In operating this tester, the fruit is placed in a padded stand on top of an ordinary family scale. The plunger is now pressed into the side of the fruit at a point of its greatest diameter by means of the lever. The plunger penetrates to a definite distance, or till the bell rings. The weight required for this pressure is recorded on the scale. Only fresh fruit of recent picking may be tested with reliability, as even a slight shriveling or drying will materially interfere with the correctness of the results.

One can readily see that the main idea of this method of testing is nothing but a modification of the common and popular practice of pressing our thumb into a fruit to see whether it is ripe or ready to eat (to the great disgust of the fruit peddler). In other words, this apparatus is an "iron thumb" connected to a bell instead of our own thumb registering the results in our brain.

How Does It Work?

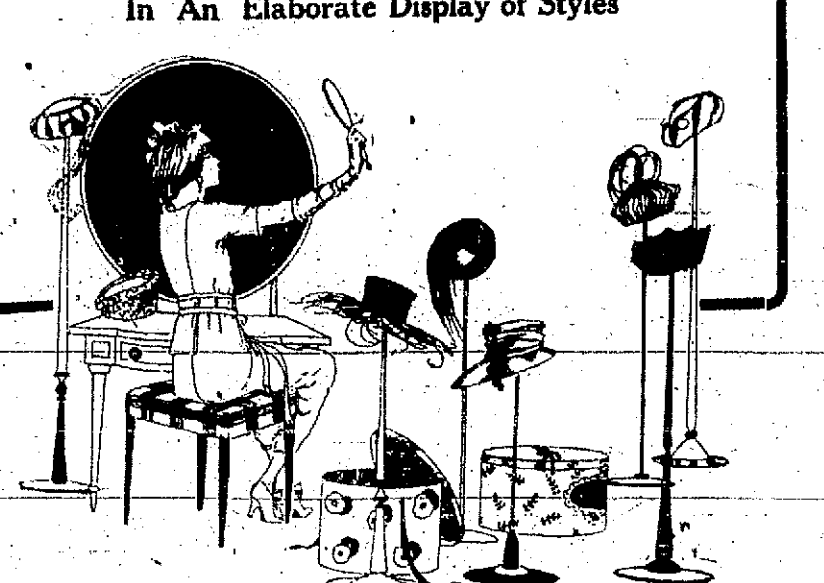

During the season of 1918 and 1919, several thousand tests on all leading varieties of pears were made by means of this apparatus in the Rogue River Valley. It was found that on the average the harvesting season for Bartletts, for instance, begins when this test registered a pressure of 35 pounds. During the height of the packing season the apparatus indicated an average pressure of 22 to 28 pounds, while the last lots of Bartletts pressed during the two seasons required a pressure of but 20 pounds. In the case of this pear there was a gradual average lowering of resistance to this kind of pressure or testing amounting to one-half pound for every 24 hours. Of course, different figures, but just as consistent, were obtained when other varieties of pears were tested. Judging from a few preliminary investigations with apples this device seems to be very acceptable for testing apples also, in which case it may prove of much wider application. It may be used not only in determining the ripeness of fruit at picking time, but also while in storage.

At the time of writing this, three of the described testing devices are in use in the state, one in the Rogue River district, another at Hood River, and the third in the department of horticulture at Oregon Agricultural College. Further work in testing pears and apples is being conducted this season.

Any grower or organization interested in the apparatus or method of testing fruit may obtain additional information by writing to the horticultural department of the Oregon Agricultural College and asking for Station Bulletin No. 162. No fruit will be accepted for testing at the college unless it is brought to the agricultural department six hours from the time of picking.

THE CONTRAST

Six months ago Lester Rouillard, a handsome young boy of 15, graduated from our school. He was placed in a brokerage office. I met this boy last week and asked how he was getting along. He replied: "Fine. I like the work—spend a lot of my time in the open. I am selling commercial paper to banks this morning." A fine, manly little chap, a boy WITH A FUTURE. Place this boy on a truck or a wagon—PARENTS, HOW CAN YOU DO IT? Why is it that our babies are so "cute"—so "cunning"—we plan for them, scheme, build castles in the air—BUT WHEN THIS BABY BECOMES A YOUNG MAN HE IS LEFT TO SHIFT FOR HIMSELF?

FIRE DAMAGES SODA FACTORY

Plant at Visalia Suffers Loss; Explosions Scare Away Spectators

VISALIA, Sept. 22.—Fire gutted the rear of the Visalia Soda Works shortly after 6 o'clock tonight with a property damage estimated at $1,000. Origin of the fire is undetermined but is known to have started among straw and rubbish banked against the center of the exterior of the structure. Prompt work of the firemen prevented the spreading of flames to the plant of the Visalia Manufacturing Company, although tongues of fire were shooting skyward before arrival of the department. Detonations from within the building caused the fire fans to scatter from proximity of the burning factory, the explosions being caused by bursting bottles.

EWING SLATED FOR REELECTION BOURBON CHIEF

Uhler Declares Local Man Will Again Head Party

County Chairman Says Phelan Sure of Victory

Duplicating his victory over opposition at the Democratic convention in Monday, Dave S. Ewing of Fresno will be elected to succeed himself as party state chairman, according to Russell Uhler, county chairman, who returned from the northern meeting last night.

"The state central committee meets in Saturday at the Palace hotel in San Francisco and will name Ewing, who has been a militant leader, again to head the party's activities," said Uhler. "Although there was a little scrap staged at the convention against the local man he won.

"The battle will have no effect on party harmony. Theodore Bell, leader of the opposition to the Fresnan, after his candidate met defeat laid aside all animosity and pledged the fullest co-operation to the national and state tickets."

Uhler said reports received indicated that the state was still fighting ground for the presidential ticket but predicted Senator Phelan would be re-elected by a large popular majority. He said the Cox tour through the state had greatly augmented the Democratic strength, according to indications in the north.

The death of Lorin Handley of Los Angeles, who was slated to be chairman of the convention, spread a pall over the meeting which was not easily dispelled.

Claims Grape Juice Turned Into Wine

Joe Demero, charged with selling liquor without a license, pleaded not guilty before Judge Briggs yesterday and was released on $200 bail. Demero claims that the liquor was grape juice, and that it is not his fault that the grape juice turned into wine. Judge Briggs will decide the case at trial on a future date.

Meets Called For Democratic Clubs

James G. Crichton, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Cox-Roosevelt Club, yesterday issued a call for a meeting of all committeemen of the organization in his office, Cory building, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to arrange for future club sessions.

The next general meeting of the club, it is planned, will be a smoker with two or three well-known speakers, possibly one of state-wide note, on the program.

A meeting for the organization of the Jugo-Slav Cox-Roosevelt Club has been called for this evening at the Hotel Sequoia. John Slavich will be the chairman.

COTTON LABOR SURVEY TODAY

Camp to Assist in Canvass of Needs For Picking

With the view of canvassing the cotton crop of the valley to see what amount of labor will be necessary to handle the crop this year, W. B. Camp, cotton specialist of the Bureau of Plant Industry, the president of the Bakersfield Cotton Growers' Association and Secretary A. E. Wray of the Valley Fruit Growers' Association will make an inspection trip today.

Wray attended a meeting in Madera last night of the Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau and cotton growers to ascertain the needs for labor in that locality and with the completion of the trip today believes that he will be in a position to know the needs of the various districts where cotton is raised and also the acreage planted, so that the distribution of labor for the cotton picking, handled this year for the first time by the association, will be an easy matter.

In Bakersfield district, Wray states that there will be 2,000 men needed to pick the cotton.

While there is some picking being done now, the first of the week will see the real beginning of the picking of short staple cotton, Wray believes. Cotton being picked now must be carefully sorted and consequently makes a harder task for the pickers. The labor supply which has been handling the fruit crop of the valley here is expected to go into the cotton picking work and be absorbed rapidly, Wray states.

PAIR ARRESTED, MAY FACE WHITE SLAVE CHARGES

Held in Custody Here Following Arrest By Police

Husband Finds Wife after 4 Months' Search Throughout West

Charged with adultery, Henry Schneider and Katherine Sittner are in the Fresno county jail, following their arrest by Chief of Police Frank Truax and Corporal Clifford Sayre yesterday. The circumstances of the case warrant a federal complaint of white slavery, the officers said and warrants will be asked for the arrest of both on those charges today.

The two are said to have come to Fresno from Chicago four months ago, bringing the woman's twin sons with them. They were followed by the husband, who succeeded in locating them at 1519 Calaveras street yesterday. He declared they represented they were husband and wife.

The police were informed and the arrest followed. When questioned, Schneider admitted having persuaded Mrs. Schneider to leave her happy home in Chicago and come to California with him, according to the police. They say he further admitted having paid the woman's transportation.

The two children were in the house on Calaveras street when the arrest occurred. Mrs. Sittner voluntarily gave them to her husband when she faced him at police headquarters for the first time since she had left Chicago.

Schneider stated that he had been married in Germany and has a wife living. He expressed no regret for having broken the home, but stated that he was willing to face the consequences. Both will be arraigned in Judge Briggs court this morning on the state charges.

A. M. TAYLOR IS PARADE MARSHAL

John Roth Named Aide For Merchant Auto Caravan

A. M. Taylor, captain during the war and a veteran of the Spanish American War, member of Fresno Post, American Legion, and assistant marshal for the last Raisin day parade, was selected yesterday as marshal for the Merchants' association parade to the Fresno District fair on Fresno day, September 25.

Assisting him will be John Roth as aide and J. M. Auberry, jr., as chief of staff, it is announced. Other plans for the parade of merchants, their employes and the public in general are progressing, Secretary L. J. Allen of the association announced yesterday. The parade is to form promptly at 1 o'clock and be ready to move at 1:30 o'clock. It will form with Mayor W. F. Toomey, a police escort and the officials of the association even with the fountain on Van Ness avenue with the head facing south. The line of machines is to extend to Fresno street and up that street to the east an indeterminate distance depending upon the number of machines entering.

The parade is not exclusively for members of the association and their staffs, Allen states, but it rather a community demonstration of the support which Fresno gives to its own district fair. Anyone is eligible to join the caravan, parade through the business section of the city with it and then go out to the fair grounds.

In addition to the two bands which had previously been secured, Secretary Allen announced yesterday that the Sperry Flour company's band had decided to enter.

Many of the members of the association are taking kindly to the suggestion that they furnish their employes with tickets of admission to the fair, the secretary states, and additional members desiring to give tickets to their employes are asked to telephone the office of the association, phone 886, where their applications for admission tickets will be handled.

Not many! Well, don't you take the risk. It might happen. A brake lining job at Hansen's is an all A-1 job always and is much cheaper than a wreck job.

Frank Gay Denies He Was Released For Breaking Rules

Stating that he was not released for breaking the training rules of the Tulare baseball team, as was recently published by directors of that club, Frank M. Gay writes a denial stating that he was released in order that the club might cut down expenses. The letter follows:

Alameda, Sept. 21, 1920.

Sporting Editor,
Fresno Republican:

Dear Sir:—A week or so back you published an article in your paper, stating that several players were released from the Tulare ball club for breaking training rules. One of these players mentioned was myself, and I am taking this opportunity to deny these charges and also explain the true reason for my release.

As you know I have played good ball for the Tulare club and stood in well with the fans. When our club was defeated by Dinuba, Monday September 6th, throwing the club out of the race, the directors immediately tried to cut down expenses for the remainder of the season, and as I was making good money, figured to let me go and fill in with some one else less expensive.

Of course they could not say they released me to cut down expenses as it would put them in bad with the fans, so they published the story above mentioned, which is an absolute untruth, as anyone will testify who knows me.

Hoping you see fit to publish this denial in your worthy paper so that my many friends throughout the valley may know the true facts of the case, and thanking you for past favors,

I remain Yours Truly,

Frank M. Gay.

CHICAGO OPENS AT CLEVELAND

Crucial Series Starts Today in American League

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—The Chicago White Sox, triumphant in their last six games, and the Cleveland Indians, winners of seven straight in the American League pennant scramble, rested here today for their important three-game series which starts tomorrow. With Cleveland setting the pace and Chicago only a game and a half behind, the series may go a long way toward deciding the winner.

Chicago must win two straight to displace Cleveland in the percentage table and three in a row will be necessary in order that the White Sox may leave here leading the league. Victory in any one of the three games will be sufficient to keep Cleveland in first place, although if the Sox take two out of three they will be only half a game behind.

Both the Indians and the White Sox have won their recent games through vigorous hitting, generally piling up leads in the games. Chicago, although facing good pitchers on the New York and Philadelphia teams, in winning six straight, cracked out 90 hits for 317 bases and scored 58 runs to their opponents' 28. Included in the slick work were 17 doubles and 14 triples.

WRANGEL TAKES 5000 PRISONERS

SEBASTOPOL, Sept. 22.—General Wrangel, anti-bolshevik commander, is advancing rapidly in the Alexandrovsk and Taganrog regions of southern Russia. Wasco Team Meets Shafter Sunday

SHAFTER, Sept. 22.—With Wasco one game in the lead over Shafter in the Fruit Belt League, the two teams will clash next Sunday at Shafter. It will be a hard-fought game from start to finish as the locals are determined to win the league pennant.

Weed Patch, which was in second place for several weeks, and tied with Wasco for first during the early part of the season, is now tied with McFarland for last place.

Four games remain to be played, the season closing October 17.

JAPANESE GIRL, RUNAWAY ABUSED, FALLS TO DEATH

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 22.—The body of a 16 year old Japanese girl, believed to be Toki Kisanski of Tulsa, Okla., who died after falling from a viaduct, was identified today by Mrs. R. F. Jamieson and Mrs. E. Pierce, both of Roscdale, Kas., a suburb, as that of a girl to whom they had talked yesterday.

The girl appeared shame-faced and embarrassed early in the morning at the door of Mrs. Jamieson's home, she said. Both women said the girl told of running away from school in Tulsa, bound for Des Moines, Iowa. She told of being taken to the country in a motor car by a man she had met at the Union station, and left to walk back to Kansas City after the man had mistreated her.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 22.—M. Kisanski, a Japanese truck farmer living near here, believed to be the father of the 16-year old girl whose was found in Kansas City, said today that his daughter left home last Saturday because she was forced to attend school here.

PUNISH ATTEMPT TO STEAL DOCUMENTS

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—Two Japanese have been sentenced to ten years imprisonment on conviction of an attempt to sell documents stolen from the Yokosuka naval station to Americans, according to newspapers here.

The theft of important documents dealing with naval plans from the trunk of a lieutenant in the naval school of gunnery at Yokosuka was reported in a Tokyo dispatch July 19. A message from Tokyo July 22 said that a naval lieutenant had committed hari kari.

To Arrest Motorist Who Injured Man

A warrant was issued yesterday afternoon, for the arrest of E. W. Van Wormer of Fowler, charging felony in failing to render assistance to an injured man. According to the police report, an automobile belonging to Van Wormer, struck A. M. Pettis of 2125 Nicholas Street, who was riding a bicycle, severely cutting the eyelet. Witnesses say that the driver failed to stop after seeing that the man was injured but speeded up the car and left the scene.

Pettis was taken to the emergency hospital, where he was treated by Dr. P. A. Tobin for bruises and lacerations of the head and body. According to the police, the accident was caused by the motorist cutting the corner, unlawfully.

STORM FIZZLED BEFORE LANDING

Only Minor Damage in Gulf States—Wires Down

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 22.—The tropical hurricane that passed inland near Morgan City last night apparently had spent its force before reaching the coast, and reports indicate only minor damage.

Wire communication, however, was difficult and railroad schedules had been revised because of washed bridges and washed out roadbeds.

Available information did not warrant any great anxiety regarding the Louisiana sugar and rice crops. All outbound craft held at Port Eads steamed out today.

Refugees Returning

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 22.—Refugees who yesterday fought for places on outgoing cars and trains before the tropical hurricane hit the Texas Coast, today were trickling back. About six thousand people had left the city.

Reassured by the storm's swerve into Louisiana, people generally considered all danger past.

Stores which yesterday took all goods from their ground floors, today were moving back.

Industry generally had resumed operations while work on the water front proceed as usual.

RAISES FREAK CUCUMBER.

TAFT, Sept. 22.—A triple shaped cucumber was brought in today by J. P. Plangher from his ranch in the Carrizo Plains, the vegetable being three full grown cucumbers on one stem. The weight is three pounds and 10½ ounces and the cucumbers measure 10 inches in length and more than 13 inches in circumference. The freak cucumber is on display at the office of Jimmie Jones in the Reyes building and is attracting much attention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Federal and city authorities here are to take extra precautions to protect government property tomorrow because of a post-card received today by Postmaster Charles W. Fay. The correspondent's side of the card bore a mourning border and read:

Banks, city hall, J. R. I. L., P. R. R. R.

Postmaster Fay reported the card to the police and Department of Justice. He said he believed it a hoax.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

to every smoker of Robt. Burns Cigars

FIRST let us make plain three facts:

[1]

During the past few years the prices of Havana and Sumatra tobaccos have steadily advanced. The profit on Robt. Burns Cigar has at times fallen distinctly below a safe business margin. This margin of profit has at times approached the vanishing point.

[2]

At no time have we compromised in the slightest the quality of Robt. Burns Cigar. To this formula we stand committed; Full, long-leaf Havana filler of fine selection, toned to agreeable mildness through our special process of curing and wrapped in the finest obtainable Sumatra leaf.

[3]

Our latest purchases of Havana and Sumatra leaf for Robt. Burns were made with our usual care and after the widest possible survey of market conditions.

Yet for that leaf we had to pay much higher prices than ever before.

IT IS OUR BELIEF that the smoker of Robt. Burns would much prefer to pay a slight advance in price rather than face the slightest let-down in the quality of his cigar

To maintain that quality it has become imperative that we add 2c apiece to the retail price of Robt. Burns Cigar.

The price of Robt. Burns Invincible is now changed to 15c; the new price of Longfellow is 17c.

There are no indications in sight at the present to warrant a decline in the price of Havana and Sumatra leaf tobacco. When such time arrives, we promise that the smokers of Robt. Burns Cigars will receive the benefit at the earliest possible moment.

Being Beautiful

"Many women prefer being beautiful to being smart."
—Princess Parker.

But beautiful women and handsome men are smart enough to know that good teeth are the biggest part of good looks. It is hard to love anybody whose teeth are discolored or decayed.

Your teeth ought to last as long as you do. The reason they don't is because you sidestep the dentist and fail to exercise the toothbrush. A little attention to the teeth saves a lot of pain.

TIDAL WAVE STOPS PEARLING SEASON

PAPEETE, Tahiti, Aug. 28.—Annual pearl diving at Ilkuoru, Paumotu coral atolls, has been temporarily discontinued due to a disastrous tidal wave and typhoon which recently swept over a greater part of the archipelago, according to information brought here by one of the island trading schooners.

The tidal wave swept over the entire atoll of Ilkuoru, according to the report, wrecking houses and in many cases sweeping them into the lagoon. Serious damage was also done to the water tanks, from which the inhabitants of Ilkuoru depend almost entirely for their supply. The loss of a number of the tanks forced a majority of the people to depend upon cocoanuts and a few poor wells for the water. A supply boat has left Papeete and by this time should be at the island.

Due to the people of Ilkuoru taking refuge on platforms, built near the top of cocoanut palms as refuge during the tidal waves, no lives were lost. Tidal waves are common occurrences in these islands, but they seldom cause as much damage as this recent one.

Several Papeete trading companies aluridkwn abnu avmfwy napunies claim to have lost trading schooners during the five days of typhoon. They base their statements on the fact that the boats should have returned to Papeete some days ago, but no word has been received from them. Many boats are lost each year in the Paumotu. In fact that islands are known as the Dangerous Archipelago due to this. Local captains claim that the currents and winds are continually changing, and that it is very difficult to navigate.

Pearl diving had ben very successful up to the time of the disaster. One of the most prosperous years in the history of the island was expected. When the natives will be able to renew their work is at present unknown. A great many of their canoes have been broken or washed to sea, and practically all the trade goods on the island were destroyed. Without an incentive in way of merchandise for which to trade their shell or gems, the Paumotuans will not dive. It is hoped, however, that before the season set for diving by the French governor has expired that work will be renewed.

His liberty was brief, however, because he was recaptured by a lieutenant of Zamora, known as "La Urraco". This bandit has just surrendered and Johnson was found in his camp and given his freedom.

Zamora, following a pursuit by government forces and several defeats, is hiding in the mountains in the State of Jalisco, accompanied only by a woman he kidnaped during the Autlan raid.

ISLAND FIGHT OVER LAND ISSUE

HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 21.—Jonah K. Kalanianaole, better known as "Prince Kuhio," Hawaii's delegate to congress, and L. L. McCandless, Democratic nominee for the position, will make the Hawaiian rehabilitation bill and not the League of Nations the main issue of the campaign in the territory, according to McCandless.

The bill, designed to promote a "back to the land" movement for native-born Hawaiians, was presented to congress by Delegate Kalanianaole, passed the house, but failed to get to the senate in the dying hours of last session.

McCandless says he is not against the principles of rehabilitation, but he is definitely opposed to the terms of the present bill.

Senator Reed Smoot and other prominent Republican leaders have declared themselves in favor of the present measure, without admitting it may be subject to some amendments when brought into the Senate.

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR A. L. CHIEF

CLEVELAND, Sept. 22.—Ohio is to head the American Legion the coming year is receiving attention in anticipation of the second annual convention of the Legion opening in Cleveland September 27.

Among those mentioned here for the office of commander are Milton J. Foreman of Illinois, Emmett O'Neill of Kentucky, Hiniger Macomber of Iowa, and E. W. Galbraith of Ohio.

Foreman was a colonel and state commander. When he took charge of the Illinois department it was twenty-first in legion membership. Now it is first. Foreman, who is more than 50 years old, served also in the Spanish-American war.

Kentucky is boosting O'Neill for the leadership because of his activity in legion affairs, especially as an organizer and leader.

MacNider is said to have more decorations than any other American with the exception of General Pershing. Nine of them are for valor. He is a bank president in Mason City, Iowa, and vice commander of the department of Iowa.

Galbraith was a colonel and state commander like Foreman. He was commander of the Ohio department until the Ohio convention at Youngstown elected his successor last month.

Colonel C. C. Chambers of Cleveland, convention executive chairman, predicts that the convention will surpass in numbers any ever held in the country, not excepting the great gathering of the Grand Army of the Republic.

JAPANESE SUFFER LOSS TEA TRADE

TOKYO, Aug. 31.—(By Mail.)—The Japanese tea trade is unusually depressed owing particularly to the small purchases by American tea merchants. Tea manufacturers in Shizuoka and other districts have jointly taken measures to curtail the manufacture to provide against losses through slack sales and the result has been a 20 per cent decrease in the output of the first crop and a 50 per cent decrease in the second crop.

On account of the slack demand, the manufacturers nearly decided to abandon the harvesting of the third crop this year, although this proposal has not been carried out. It is generally observed that unless tea merchants and exporters change their attitude, a considerable decrease is thought inevitable. This, it is feared, will eventually cause a shortage of supply and hurt the export trade toward the end of the year, particularly in view of the rather scanty stocks of old goods brought over from last season.

PAPEETE, Tahiti, Sept. 22.—Frequent earthquake shocks have been disturbing this island to the extent that there is fear among the inhabitants in regard to future serious disturbances. This is the first shipment of Australian dried fruits to this country, Duffy said. California apples sell in Australia for $6.50 per box, while the Australians can sell their apples in America for less than half that figure, he said.

Sokolov in his disguise.

TOO GREAT LOSS OF MILK BOTTLES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Replacing lost milk bottles adds to the price of milk paid by city consumers, an investigation by the Department of Agriculture has disclosed, although no attempt was made to fix the amount added to consumers' bills for this reason. In at least twenty-seven cities junk dealers were found to carry on a regular traffic in milk bottles.

The report says milk dealers "are compelled to purchase 1.2 bottles every month for each bottle they have filled during that period," and continues:

"The loss among small dealers is less than that sustained by the large enterprises. The small dealers have greater breakage than the large distributers, but they are better able to check up on the return of their bottles and therefore do not lose so many in that manner.

"Breaking bottles, losing or using them for other purposes, selling to junk dealers, or giving the bottles belonging to one dealer to another adds materially to the consumer's bill and is an economic error which each and every consumer can help to reduce by returning every bottle in good condition."

WATERBURY, Conn., Sept. 22.—Michael Kolechuk, charged with placing a bomb near the home of Superintendent of Police Beach, pleaded guilty today. He was sentenced to from ten to fifteen years in prison and fined $1,000.

The board of international tellers announced that President John L. Lewis, conservative, had been re-nominated by a vote of 328 to 161 over Robert H. Harlan of Washington, for international president. Vice President Philip Murray of Pennsylvania defeated Alexander Howat of Kansas for the nomination for international vice president, 246 to 161. William Green, international secretary and treasurer, was renominated without opposition.

The radicals inside the organization were assisted by extreme radicals from the outside in the hope that control of the United Mine Workers might be seized by the radical element, said the statement.

Protect Your Family

Now while you have the chance you should look to the future welfare of your family. You know that all wealth is based on land and in justice to your family you should own all the land that you can reasonably buy. Buy land somewhere from some one and buy it NOW.

Buy a Practically Producing Orchard

---You buy the raw land and tell us what you want planted---we will do the rest and turn it over to you a practically producing place.

We have to offer you one of the best land propositions that you ever had offered you. Better soil—better water condition we challenge you to find.

To obtain an orchard or vineyard here is an easy matter. All you have to do is to pick out the piece you want and after the deal is made we plant anything you say—figs, peaches, apricots, plums, almonds, olives, and cultivate and water them and no interest or taxes for four years. We do all the work and guarantee you a practically producing place when we turn it over to you the length of time depending on what you plant. Where can you beat that proposition.

LOCATION

—Just seven miles east of Merced and 50 miles north of Fresno with paved highway practically all the way.

ON THE SANTA FE

—The Santa Fe railroad runs directly through our land. All trains stop and it affords ideal marketing of your crops.

ON YOSEMITE Highway

—The paved highway to Yosemite runs directly through the town of Planada.

LAND LEVEL

—Standing on one corner of the land it looks to be absolutely level and in fact it requires but very little leveling.

NO HARD PAN

—Hard pan here is unknown. You would have to get a well boring machine before you hit it and then we doubt if you would.

PLENTY WATER

—Pumping plants throughout the district proves there is ample water and wells are throwing from 600 to 1000 gallons per minute.

You've a Surprise Awaiting You at---

PLANADA

If you have never been to Planada or if you haven't been there for some time you will marvel at the development. Land which one year ago was a vast grain field is now growing year old peaches and apricots and it is a wonderful sight. The whole surrounding country is one great mass of trees and vines.

AN ELECTRIC PUMPING PLANT GOES WITH EVERY 80 ACRES

We will give you a 4 year old fig orchard for $550

Per Acre

We sell you a tract of land and plant it to the kind of figs you say. We cultivate it, water it and care for it for four years, free of all taxes and interest, and at the end of that time we will turn over to you a perfect stand of fig trees, for $550 per acre. We ask you $100 per acre down, and the balance in yearly payments covering a term of years.

What's Good for a Big Corporation Is Also Good for You

Here adjoining the town of Planada and just across the road from our land the California Packing Corp. have bought and are planting 4000 acres to peaches and apricots. 1000 acres are already planted and the remaining acres are being planted just as fast as they can proceed with the work.

Big corporations like that never buy blindly—they know what they are doing. They know this Planada land is the very best to be had and what is good for them, is also good for you. The very same kind of land they bought and are developing you can also buy, just across the road from theirs. Let us talk to you about it.

TURLOCK, Sept. 22—The board of directors of the Turlock Irrigation district met in the Board rooms on Saturday.

An invitation was received from W. A. Kramer to the Board and Engineer to visit the Snow Mountain Dam on the Eel River, now under construction. No action was taken but the board did avail themselves unofficially of the invitation and on Tuesday journeyed to the dam.

There being no protests to the Board on the assessments after having sat as a board of equalization for a period of ten days in accordance with law, the rate of taxation was established as follows: $269,000, interest on outstanding bonds, $3.25 per hundred dollars assessed value; $140,600, operation, maintenance, salaries and general expense, $2.25 per hundred dollars.

The meeting adjourned and on Monday met again this time in joint session with the Modesto Irrigation district board to listen to a report from Mr. Wylie, consulting engineer for the Don Pedro project. After his report a general discussion was indulged in.

This meeting adjourned and the Turlock board went into regular session. Bids were opened for general hauling. The following submitted bids: Ora H. Andrew, B. W. Davis, Broadway Dray and Transfer and Carlson and Warin. The contract was awarded to B. W. Davis, who submitted the following bid: 17½ cents per ton mile up to 10 miles, then 12½ cents per ton miles for all additional miles with a minimum charge of 40 cents per ton.

A letter from Attorney F. H. Giffin relating to the right-of-way on Drainage Ditch known as old lateral No. 3, was referred to Engineer Meikle.

The engineer was instructed to move all sign boards off the right of way of the district.

The following demands were allowed: F. S. Sanders, damage and right of way, $100.00; Standard Oil Co., gas, etc., $487.22 and $396.09.

ACCEPT BID FOR SANGER PAVEMENT

Improvement of Seventh Street to Be Done By Crummey Co.

SANGER, Sept. 22—The city trustees last night accepted the bid of Hugh Crummey for paving the sides of Seventh street. Crummey's bid was $18,502.40, and was the only one received.

The librarian wrote to the trustees stating that the city had one of the best libraries in the county, from a literary standpoint, but the heating apparatus was about the worst. It was decided to rectify the matter before the severe weather set in.

The atention of the trustees was drawn to a pen of hogs in the vicinity of the Wilson school. The board of health will be communicated with.

The water collector reported as follows for the month of August: Cash, water tap, $999.13; inspection fees, $91; delinquent, $34.23 credit, pipe line, $3.00.

A discusion arose over the putting in order of the alleys in the city, four of which were in very bad state. After going into figures it was decided to take no immediate action. The attorney informed the board that a recent supreme court judgment had laid it down that the railroad commission had no jurisdiction over public utilities.

Rancher at Atwater Receives $1800 on 1 1-2 Acres Fruit

MERCED, Sept. 22.—One and one-half acres in Levi Clings brought an Atwater orchardist $1,800. The fruit was grown on the Clyde Abbott place and the yield was eighteen tons, which brought $10 a ton. On the same place figures show that from 17 acres, which embraced the acre and a half referred to, the revenue this year from peaches and grapes amounted to $16,000.

Several orchards in the Atwater district this year have yielded in dollars from $300 to $600 an acre.

MODESTO, Sept. 22.—Work was started today on an additional story to the Hotel Modesto by Contractor House for Henry Crow, owner of the hotel. The great increase in travel made it necessary to make the ball room into rooms last spring, but even this has been continually filled and another floor was found necessary to care for the traveling public.

MOTORISTS ARE BADLY INJURED

Mother and Daughter Suffer Fractures in Collision Near Fowler

FOWLER, Sept. 22—A bad accident occurred yesterday on Manning avenue at an intersection near C. V. Peterson's place. A mix-up on the crossing between the cars of C. E. Vonborn and Hans Christensen knocked both cars over leaving their wheels up. Vonborn came off with a flesh wound on the face, but the Christensen people were badly hurt. Mrs. Christensen and her daughter both received fractures of the pelvic bones and are being treated at the local sanitarium. Christensen's young son was driving the car. The view at this crossing is obstructed and renders travel there dangerous.

Both high and grade schools are crowded beyond capacity of buildings at their opening. The enrollment at Fowler grammar school is 192 divided among teachers and grades as follows: F. P. Hogan, principal and eighth grade, 49; Miss Gluer, seventh, 56; Miss Long, sixth, 41; Mrs. McDonald, fifth and sixth, 42; Miss Robb, fifth, 35; Miss Enoch, fourth, 42; Miss Watkins, third and fourth, 44; Mrs. Gower, third, 31; Miss Brown, second, 44; Miss Ripley, second, 39; Miss Beatty, first, 47; Miss Todd, first, 40; Miss [illegible], first, 36.

New Methods For Feeding of Cattle Prove Successful

RAYMOND, Sept. 21.—Three carloads of prime beef were shipped from Raymond yesterday. It is the first time for several years that the ranchers have been able to produce such a quality on the open range. The stock belonging to Messrs. McFarland, True and Jones were fattened on the government range thirty miles north of North Fork. The stockmen in that locality have been following closely the instructions of the government experts with regard to the breeding of stock and the strengthening and saving of the range feed. Their range is now carrying several hundred head more than it ever has and in spite of the dry years, is producing better beef than it ever did before.

Reloading at Berenda, an agile, enthusiastic bull succeeded in escaping from the car, and pursued his course down the track. No efforts of the train crew were successful at catching him or driving him off the rails. The assistance of a passing limited was commandeered. The train slowed down and the cowcatcher gently shoved the adventuresome bull to a less commanding position, after which the limited was able to proceed on its way, and the bull having sated his curiosity as to the uses of a track was induced to return to the car and pursue his journey in the usual method.

Production for August Shows Increase Over Previous Month

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22—Statistics gathered by the Standard Oil Bulletin state that the August production of 290,530 barrels per day shows an increase of 11,421 barrels daily as compared with July, and is the highest production figure recorded since August, 1914. This increase is the direct result of development in the eastern extension of the Elk Hills field, where on August 31 five wells were producing in excess of 28,000 barrels per day. August shipments of 321,532 barrels per day are the highest ever recorded in the history of the state, and mark an increase of 11,681 barrels daily as compared with July.

The continued disparity between production and shipments resulted in a stock decrease of 972,289 barrels during the month.

Fifty-six new wells were completed during August, with an initial daily production of 20,550 barrels.

RETURNS HOME FROM ABROAD

Coalingan Tell Incidents of 37,000 Mile Trip in Two Continents

COALINGA, Sept. 22.—Henry E. Cassriel, the local jeweler, has returned home from an extended foreign trip that took him over 37,000 miles of land and water, through the United States, a part of Canada, into England and across a portion of Europe into Germany and Poland. He made the trip to visit in Europe on business and with his aged mother who resides in Posen, Poland.

The older Mrs. Cassriel is doing quite nicely, says her son, considering the worries consequent during the great war when her home was at the territory surrounded by wicked fighting. A specialist informed the Coalinga man his mother is at present in the best of health and had many years before her. This information, naturally, put Cassriel in good spirit and made his visit a most enjoyable one.

Cassriel had been gone for about four months so had time to stop in the various countries he visited and study the post-war condition of the divers peoples and their living conditions. Of all the places he visited, states Cassriel, England seems to have gone farthest along in her reconstruction program. Canada, too, he says, looks very good from a business standpoint, especially in the Eastern provinces, not yet affected by prohibition, which seems to be sweeping over the Dominion.

In Germany, of course, things are still in a very unsettled condition, according to the returned Coalingan. People there, he believes, seem to be unwilling to work or make any steps toward progress until they understand that whatever their work produces will not all go to the Allies of Europe as payment on the indemnity imposed on Germany through the peace terms. He cites the case of a German man who had been receiving the 10 marks per day from the government for support of his family. This amount is being given all unemployed, families Germans. The unemployed man in question was offered an opportunity to work, his wage to be 12 marks per day. By taking the place his motivation from the government would have been cancelled so his reply to the offer of employment was: "What? Me work for 2 marks today." The idea that he could loaf and draw 10 marks was more inviting than the thought of working for 2 marks with the possibility that a greater portion of whatever's profit is made for his employer would be taken by the European allies. Naturally, the patriotism of Germans insofar as upbuilding of the country is concerned, is a lacking element, according to Cassriel.

Speaking of France and the battlefields Mr. Cassriel remarks the French tourist bureaus are grabbing right and left for money from the thousands of Americans who go there to visit the war torn country. At San Quentin, he states, where Frenchmen formerly charged thirty francs to sleep over night they now charge the equivalent of 30 American dollars. This, it is pointed out, may be cause for so many Americans remaining in Paris and spending their money merry-making in the French resorts rather than carrying out their plan of viewing the battlefields.

Elementary Schools Are Opened at Clovis

CLOVIS, Sept. 22—The Clovis elementary schools opened Monday. The teachers and their assignments are: E. McKinzie, principal and 8th classes; Mrs. Sara Smith, vice principal and primary No. 1; Miss Minnie Wren, 8th grade; Mrs. Alberta Williams, 7th; Miss Ruth H. Brunsetter, 6th; Miss Edith Palmer, 5th; Miss Thyrza Dexter, 4th; Miss Dorothy Bridges, 3rd; Miss Thelma McKay, 2nd; Miss Lydia Griswold, primary No. 2.

Since the tunnel trouble in the south part of the state, all freight and passenger crews that usually worked through Clovis have been displaced. The older men in point of service are filling their positions. The Southern Pacific has been notified not to receive any perishable freight or live stock for Los Angeles way, these shipments being routed over the Union Pacific through Ogden.

The Southern Pacific force here has received back pay awarded by the Labor board which is retroactive once May.

The Foley sheds are in first class condition and the workers are hoping to win first prize in the contest between the various Foley houses, to date three specials trains of fruit have been sent east.

The Peach Growers plant is now running full blast and the shipments average one car daily.

Nick Vicicich of Sacramento, J. H. Ball of Riverdale, E. R. Fortmann of San Francisco, Joe Hall, and Maxwell Anderson of Porterville were new guests at the Hoblitt the past few days.

The Clovis union high school will open on Sept. 20th in its handsome new headquarters as the new $135,000 building will be ready by that date to accommodate the classes although there will still remain some outside work to be done.

Mrs. Bell Miller Stockton is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Conby.

Mr and Mrs. H. H. Jones and daughters are spending the week at Long Beach.

PHELAN OPENS FAIR IN KINGS

Senator Lauds Evidence Kings Prosperity: Award Prizes

HANFORD, Sept. 22.—Formal opening of the Kings County Fair was made today by Senator James E. Phelan in an address at the fair grounds, in which he extolled the great productiveness of the county as shown in the stock and agricultural exhibits.

Judging of the produce entered in the pavilion and the swine exhibit were made. The exhibit of Hardwick farm bureau won first prize. This was the first time that section had made an exhibit of farm produce. Grangeville was awarded the second premium and Oakvale third.

In the race between Chester Villa's whippet and an airplane driven by Lieut. Hawkins, the automobile was declared the winner of the race.

Tomorrow a horse race program is scheduled, with a large number of entries and the old time sport of which Kings county fairs have been noted, will be provided to amuse the large crowds which are expected to be present.

The attendance today was much larger than on the two previous ones. Friday and Saturday's programs, which will consist largely of races, will be the banner days of the fair. On the concluding day, Saturday, the automobile races will be run on Hanford's fine 80-foot track.

Kingsburg Resident Plans Business Block

KINGSBURG, Sept. 22.—Victor Sundet, a young business man of Kingsburg, has begun the construction of a modern business building, which is to be located on Draper street between the Trading real estate office and the Clark-Brewer butcher shop. The building is to be leased to the McKinley-Globe Music company for five years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Washer have recently leased their 320-acre ranch to L. Erickson of Kingsburg for a term of three years. The lease carries all stock numbering over 40 head stock numbering over 40 head of dairy cows, horses and pigs. Mr. and Mrs. Washer will leave for the south to join their son who is engaged in the work of oil drilling.

Mrs. E. W. Pinkley, who has been spending her summer vacation in San Diego, returned home to take up teaching in the local grammar school where she has taught for twenty years.

Mrs. Dr. Fallgren is spending a few days in Fresno with her sister, Mrs. Johnson.

The work of the local grammar school is progressing with men working on the foundation of the new structure.

A large number of local raisin growers have staked their raisins in anticipation of rain, and today are distributing the grapes on the field again.

The local syrup manufacturing plant with a large force of men, are working double time to handle the enormous shipments of grapes coming in each day.

The contractors who secured the big contract from the city to pave Draper street and several side streets, will begin work in the near future. When the work is finished, Kingsburg will present an up-to-date appearance.

The local schools both high and grammar, began today with a record attendance. On account of room space, children are obliged to occupy basements of churches, courtrooms, and other suitable buildings.

Mrs. Henry Clay, who was reported very ill, is improving nicely.

Many of the local ex-soldiers are applying to the U. S. Government for Victory medals.

Hold Inquest Over Victim of Accident

COALINGA, Sept. 22.—At an inquest held yesterday over the remains of Peter Friel, local oil worker, who was killed Sunday, a verdict was reached that he met his death as the result of a fracture of the skull caused by being struck on the head by a grip which had slipped from the polish rod when pulling well No. 4, Shell, section 14. The remains of the deceased were taken to Fresno today, where burial will take place in the Catholic cemetery. It is understood that no relatives of Friel reside in this country, his father, Andew A. Friel, and other still being residents of Ireland. Young Friel came to California over three years ago, and had been employed in the oil fields here for about a year.

Mrs. Lawrence Holmes, formerly of this city, and now residing at Ventura, is visiting here for a few days with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes reside in the southern California oil fields, where Mr. Holmes is employed by the Keck Drilling Company.

WILL HARVEST RICE CROP.

RIVERBANK, Sept. 22.—B. Lurd arrived home from a business trip to the Atlantic coast and New Orleans, and is preparing to harvest his rice crop in the Cano district.

The rice harvest will be in full swing in that district this week. A consignment of several rice harvesters was received and delivered to the growers. The completed crop gives full indication of coming up to the estimate made earlier in the season, when Mr. Lord placed the value of the crop at over $500,000.

Clarence Lebow, who recently filed suit against the Santa Fe at Modesto for the loss of a leg while switching cars in Stockton, asking $50,000 damages, has settled the case out of court, getting $10,000 and a permanent position at this place at a stipulated salary.

J. W. Hill, son of the public administrator of Alameda county, who recently purchased 100 acres in the Claus road, is having a modern bungalow and the necessary outbuildings placed on the property and will soon make his home there.

O. E. Johnson is representing Riverbank at the state meeting of retail grocers being held at Del Monte this week.

The following ladies constitute the officers of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. James Martin; vice-president, Mrs. George Shoopman; secretary, Mrs. J. Homer Steele; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Turtle. A business meeting will be held this week at the home of Mrs. C. B. Ackerly to complete arrangements for a bazaar to raise funds for a new church that the congregation has decided to build the coming year.

Mrs. Alice Tuttle will spend the next thirty days visiting relatives in Iowa and Kansas.

Harlan Peters and Miss Alice Creiner of Stockton were married in Stockton Saturday, and will be at home after September 25 at their residence on Santa Fe street. The newly-weds are spending their honeymoon in the mountains above Tuolumne.

PLAN TO BUILD NEW HOUSES

Coalinga Organizes Association to Relieve Home Shortage

COALINGA, Sept. 22.—A number of Coalinga's leading merchants and professional men are fostering a suggestion made last week for the establishment of a local building and loan association for the purpose of coping with the house shortage in this city.

After conferring with several of the business men, A. H. Good and W. H. Lisle this week started the circulation of a petition and secured signatures from men willing to help finance an association whose purpose will be the erection of new dwellings here. The petition as it at present stands gives the proposition a start with $24,000 pledged. It is the intention of the circulators to increase this sum to at least $50,000.

It is planned to start the erection of several new dwellings as soon as the organization has been perfected. These will be put up for sale on the installment plan. The association will also stand ready at all times to loan money for the purpose of erecting homes.

Establishment of such an association here, say those fostering it, will mean the erection of a score or more of new homes during the first year and an opportunity to relieve the present housing shortage.

Although the census report of the Coalinga population was a distinct disappointment to every citizen, every decent house in the town is filled and dozens of families have been compelled to leave because of their inability to secure a decent place to live in.

The building of the new houses and the expected increase in population will mean more business and more prosperity to the community and from the present outlook the prospective association will become a realization.

ELKS DONATE JUBILEE FUND

MODESTO, Sept. 22.—The Modesto lodge of Elks has given its hearty support to the Golden Jubilee and Armistice Day celebration for November 11, and has also made a $250 donation to the fund for the celebration. It is expected that somewhere in the neighborhood of $15,000 will be spent on this huge celebration which will take the place of a home-coming day this year. Nothing is to be done half-heartedly, and the various committees are busy laying their plans. One of the busiest committees is the finance committee, which will have the job of collecting the necessary money. Donations of $1,000 and down are being taken on all sides, however, and no fear is felt that the money will not be forthcoming.

LEAVES ESTATE TO WIDOW

BAKERSFIELD.—Sept. 22.—The estate of Charles E. Ballagh, oil man who died in New York last winter, has been ordered distributed to the widow, Myrtle Ballah. The estate consists of $4,273.83 cash, $1,550 liberty bonds, and equity in lands in Los Angeles value, the entire estate being valued at $9,096.35. The decree was signed by Judge H. A. Perris.

Plan Two Comedies For North Fresno

NORTH FRESNO, Sept. 22.—Two comedies, "Three Dear Friends", and "A Case of Suspension", will be presented Friday evening by the young people's class of the Sunday school. The proceeds will be used by the young people for community work. The plays will be given at the Bullard school.

PICKS UP RADIO MESSAGES

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 22.—Wireless telephone messages being sent between Los Angeles and the Catalina Islands were picked up in this city yesterday by Howard Buchanan, a high school boy. The conversation carried on between these stations sounded as clear as any line telephone. Young Buchanan attracted attention several years ago by receiving wireless messages at his home here with an apparatus that he constructed for the purpose. He now plans to install a radio telephone transmitter. The receiving set how in use was designed and built by the owner, and was the first to receive radio telegraph and telephone messages in this city.

REBEKAHS PLAN DANCE

LOS BANOS, Sept. 22.—The Rebekah lodge will give an old-time dance and social on Saturday evening at Odd Fellows' hall. Ladies will be expected to attend attired in aprons and the gentlemen in overalls. Choice refreshments will be served.

Mr. Cyr, father of Jerome Cyr, is spending this week at Merry Hot Springs.

Mrs. Delia Megwath left recently for Justine, where she will spend a month at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Acker, with the latter is away on a vacation.

Mrs. Kate Fahey has moved here from Newman and will make her home with her son, Rodger.

DEATH SUMMONS PIONEER WOMAN

Wife of General Peeler, Former Coalingan, Is Called at Venice

COALINGA, Sept. 22.—Word was received here last evening that Mrs. R. L. Peeler, well-known former Coalingan, had died in Venice Monday night. The message did not give any details other than that interment would be held this afternoon at the Odd Fellows' cemetery in Los Angeles. General R. L. Peeler and the late Mrs. Peeler were among pioneer residents of Coalinga, the husband having been in charge of the Coalinga Water Company prior to its sale to the municipal government. After leaving Coalinga for their new home in Southern California, Mr. Peeler spent a great deal of his time traveling through the Texas and Oklahoma oil fields.

Mrs. Peeler was a member of the first board of local high school trustees and while here took a prominent part in educational and social circles.

PLAN TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 22.—The Kern County Teachers' Institute will be held November 22-24. Supt. L. E. Chenoweth announces that Miss L. C. Lowe of San Francisco, well known for her industrial art work as instructor in elementary art classes, has been secured for the sessions. Instead of general lectures, there will be a number of department of section meetings, so that each may attend the one whose subject of special interest.

Grace of outline, beauty of design, finish and daintiness in size, aside from splendor of tone and exquisite fluency of action, would almost compel the purchase of the wonderful little Grand pianos that are so deservedly popular today—and the Grand is so superior. It inspires the student or composer, meets the very highest ideals of the finished musician and adds greatly to the beauty and attractiveness of the home. START BASEBALL PROBE IN EAST

Evidence Furnished World's Series Games Thrown Is Given Out

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Evidence that the world's series last year between the Chicago American and Cincinnati National league clubs was "not on the square" was presented to the Cook county grand jury which today began an investigation of alleged baseball gambling, according to a statement issued tonight by Hartley Replogle, prosecutor in charge of the investigation.

Seven Chicago players are involved, Mr. Replogle said, but none of the Cincinnati players were implicated. He charged in his statement, however, that some of the witnesses were not living up to their pledges that they would make public all information they had.

President B. B. Johnson of the American league, President Charles Comiskey and William Veeck of the Chicago American and National league nines, respectively, and several baseball writers were questioned today. Mr. Johnson told reporters he had presented testimony which he believed proved that some player last year had "thrown games," but that he had no evidence of such action this year.

League Heads Questioned

Presidents Johnson and Comiskey, after being questioned for more than an hour each, were ordered to appear again Tuesday. The investigation will last for at least a week. Jacob ("Rube") Benton, New York National pitcher, will be questioned tomorrow, and President John Heydler of the National league will be examined Monday or Tuesday.

While little information concerning today's testimony was given out, it was reported that a new bunch of subpoenas would be issued shortly.

President Comiskey said he held up the world's series checks of several Chicago American players last year, while investigating charges that had come to his attention, but declared he had obtained no proof against any player.

An armful of reports from private detectives was given the jury by President Veeck, but he declared that none of it "furnished conclusive proof" against any member of the Chicago National team. The reports dealt primarily with charges that the Philadelphia-Chicago game of August 31 had been fixed for Philadelphia to win.

Other witnesses were Sam Hall and I. E. Sanborn, baseball writers, who were questioned largely as to how many players on a team would have to be "fixed" in order to assure victory for the other club. Hall said he thought two men could assure a defeat for their team under ordinary circumstances.

Others Subpoenaed

Subpoenas were issued tonight for John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Nationals; Harry McCormick, umpire in the Chicago-Philadelphia game August 31; John O. Seys, secretary of the local National league club; Ray Schalk, catcher for the Chicago Americans, and Joe Villa, a New York newspaper man, will be asked to appear later, Mr. Replogle said. The men subpoenaed tonight were ordered to come before the jury Thursday.

LEMOORE CUBS TO BE STRENGTHENED FOR POST SERIES

LEMOORE, Sept. 22.—Phil Koerner, first baseman of the Hanford team, and Outfielder Claire, a member of the same team, will become members of the Lemoore Cubs immediately after next Sunday's game, and will be seen in action against Visalia in the play-off series for the Valley League championship. This announcement was made today at baseball headquarters in this city.

Koerner and Claire are considered two of the fastest players in the Valley League, and their services will greatly strengthen the Cub team. The first game of the championship series will be played at Visalia on Sunday, October 3.

VETERANS WILL COACH OREGON GRIDDERS, 1920

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 22.—The entire coaching staff of the University of Oregon football team this year are veterans of the Oregon team of 1916, which defeated Pennsylvania in the first "East and West" contest at Pasadena. Hugo Bezdek trained them all, and their work in bringing the squad up to the mark is showing much similarity of method as a result.

"Shy" Huntington is in charge, as he was last year, with Bart Spellman as line coach and "Bill" Williams as assistant. Bartlett, a former track star as well as football man, is handling the freshman eleven. Bill Hayward, the trainer, is a veteran at that post.

Like most other institutions, Oregon is lamenting the passing of some of last year's heroes. Brandenburg, who captained the 1919 team, and Huntington, who gained 150 yards against Harvard last winter, are the leaders on the casualty list. Huntington has been graduated and Brandenburg has said he would not return to college. Five veteran backfield men, however, including Captain-elect Steers, are to be here before long, and there are several backfield men who showed ability on last year's freshman squad.

Huntington's chief worry, it appears, has to do with the line. Three linemen were graduated last year and prospects for others to return are not promising.

TIGERS DEFEAT OAKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Freak plays featured the game Vernon won from Oakland 7 to 2 over Mitze's protest. Vernon scored two runs in the fourth inning on a double squeeze, Chadbourne coming all the way from second.

In the seventh, with one out, Smith on third and DeVormer on second, Long grounded to Gingiardi who threw to Mitze, who ran Smith back to third. Smith and DeVormer were on the third sack when Mitze tagged Devormer. Smith then stepped off the bag and Mitze tagged him. Phyle ruled that Smith was out and DuVormer was entitled to the bag. Mitze then entered a protest. The score:

CINCY REDS ARE ELIMINATED IN RACE FOR FLAG

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Brooklyn retained its five game lead in the National League pennant race by defeating Boston today while New York was taking the final contest of the season with the Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati was eliminated from the race today by losing two games to Pittsburg.

Brooklyn, with a lead of five games over the Giants, has six more games to play, one with Boston and five with New York. The Giants have eight more games to play—two with Boston, one with Philadelphia and the five with Brooklyn. To win the pennant Brooklyn must win one game from the Giants and the final contest of the season with Boston on October third, or win two of the five games with the Giants.

No games were played today in the American League. Cleveland is one and one-half games ahead of Chicago and the latter the same distance ahead of New York.

SACRAMENTO, 6; SEATTLE, 0

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 22.—Sacramento defeated Seattle today, 6 to 0, in six innings. A heavy muddy field made playing difficult and the game was called on account of rain. Fittery held the Rainiers to three hits. McGaffigan, Sacramento second baseman, was injured when he tried to field a ball. The score:

AL WALKER TO BATTLE PARKER IN MAIN EVENT

American Legion Boxing Card For Sept. 28 Now Complete

Sidney White to Meet Ted Levin in Semi-Wind-Up

Al Walker crack bantamweight boxer of San Francisco the boy who has defeated all comers including Bud Ridley, has wired the American Legion Boxing Association his acceptance to appear here in the main event against Smiling Sammy Parker next Tuesday night Sept. 28.

Walker has been seen in action in this city but once at which time he defeated Young Joe Thomas in one of the best battles that was ever witnessed in this city, and his work impressed the Fresno fans to a great extent and made him a favorite among the boxing lovers of this vicinity.

Smiling Sammy Parker who has performed in this city on several occasions of late has always given a good account of himself and can be depended upon to put a good scrap. While both are considered good boys all must agree that the Fresno promoter has made no mistake in matching these boys for the main event.

Ted Levin, the boy who lost a hard fight to Dick Brenton on the last card is matched to meet Sidney White of Los Angeles in semi-wind up event in a bout that the matchmaker thinks will equal that of the main event. Jack Powell of Fresno will meet Soldier Graham in the special event. The preliminaries will be offered by Young Lotty vs. Joe Thomas of Los Angeles, and Billy Jordan vs. Johnny Travis, and the curtain raiser event will bring together Young Corbett vs. Kid Mahoney.

We thought they could. We knew there was room at the top for a better cigarette. But it would have to be something entirely new.

And it is—it's Spur.

An original blend that makes the rich Oriental tobaccos richer by pleasing combination with mild, fragrant Burley and other home-grown tobaccos.

A new method of rolling, crimped, not pasted. A smart "brown-and-silver" package, triple-wrapped to keep Spurs fresh.

GRAIN STOCKS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Big export business in wheat led to sharp upturns today in the wheat market. Foreign buying of corn was noted. Wheat closed strong, 3½ to 4½c net higher, with December, $2.36¼ to 2.36½, and March $2.30. Corn finished unchanged to 1¼c up and oats gained ¾@⅞c. In provisions the outcome ranged from 25c decline to 30c advance. Estimates of the amount of wheat taken for Europe during the last 24 hours ran as high as five million bushels and bulls nearly had things their own way after the announcement. A sudden slump of 15½c in the rye market tended to increase the strength of wheat.

Shorts in the September delivery of corn became flurried over scarcity of offerings. September ran up at one time nearly 14 cents.

Oats sympathized with strength of other grain.

Provisions irregularity was explained by two opposing factors—the weakness of hog prices and the advance of cereals.

Close:

Wheat—December, $2.36¼; March, $2.30.

Corn—September, $1.35½; December, $1.03¼.

Oats—December, 53 7-8c; May, 62⅝c.

Pork — September, $21.75; October, $21.75.

Lard—October, $19.55; January, $18.20.

Ribs — September, $17.10; October, $17.10.

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Trading on the stock exchange today was again restrained as a result of recent events calculated to bring about a revision of estimates dealing with general industrial conditions. Observance of the Jewish holiday also served to curtail operations.

In addition to developments pertaining to the motor trade and its collateral branches, there was much discussion respecting the immediate future of the steel industry, especially as to maintenance of prevailing prices. Gossip dealt in the same strain with the metal market, including coppers.

Motors, oils, steels and shippings suffered extreme reactions of two to almost five points, coppers, sugars, leathers, chemicals and textiles yielding one to three points. The cheaper rails again provided the chief element of strength with tobaccos as the only firm to strong specialties. Sales amounted to 700,000 shares.

Opinions from authoritative banking sources regarding future credit conditions were encouraging, greater price stability being predicted, especially for foodstuffs and other raw materials. Call money was offered at 7 per cent, but time funds evinced a firmer tendency. Foreign exchange was erratic, sterling rallying after weakness.

Domestic and foreign bonds were featureless on enlarged dealings. Total sales (par value) aggregated $11,500,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Forecast of 1920 Market Seed Crop

With its seed-producing industry ever on the increase a splendid opportunity is afforded California favorably to promote its seed products, and it is an axiomatic truth that honest weight and clean seeds of guaranteed viability will do more to exploit the seed business than any other known form of advertising.

The production of practically all small vegetable seed crops will be considerably less this year than in 1919 or 1918, according to reports received by the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture. The reductions range from 85 per cent for spinach to 12 per cent for lettuce. Increases are shown for garden pole beans, garden peas and onion sets.

A slightly larger production than last year of the early crop of alfalfa seed in the southwest is indicated. Due to small acreage and lighter yield per acre a production of timothy seed of approximately 80 per cent of last year is forecast. Because of such conditions the temptation will be great among certain seeds men to unload old stock of low germinating quality and we may look for a larger percentage of waste material in the form of bulk adulterants. Farmers should use discretion in the purchase of seeds.

Florida Indorses California Fumigation

Professor Wilmon Newell, Plant Commissioner for the state of Florida, in a recent letter to Director Hecke, says in part:

"We are in hearty sympathy with your views on the fumigation and cleaning of railroad cars used in the transportation of plant products.

"As you doubtless know, the Federal Horticultural Board already has provided for the cleaning of cars used in transporting cotton or cotton seed in areas exposed to danger of infestation by the pink bollworm.

"We have been trying to do something along this line in connection with fruit cars here in Florida, although this work has been purely cooperative and no regulations covering it have been adopted. We have had the matter up with the principal refrigerator car companies and have arranged for the sanitary disposition of cleanings from the cars at the principal icing plants. If our funds permitted, we would like to go very much further than this, however, in this direction."

There are hundreds of men today who in the past have been just getting by and who have recently been able to get hold of a piece of raw land and develop it and just as sure as they stick to it they will be independent in five years' time.

You can also be independent in five years if you will but act now and buy a tract of land in the Fresno Farms Tract. If you have any doubt about it, go out there and interview any of the ranchers there and they will tell you what they have done and what you can do. All you need is to take the step.

Fresno Farms Tract is One Mass of Thompsons

Take a ride out Shields avenue through the tract and see with your own eyes the great mass of Thompson Seedless vines that abound from one end of the tract to the other. You know what the profit on Thompson grapes is and if you don't get your share in the future it is your own fault. There is plenty of the same kind of land here and all it needs is plowing, planting and cultivating.

THE finest body of land in California for the price is in Madera county. It is the best because water and soil conditions are good and the lands can be bought for less money than similar lands elsewhere in the state. I have lands in large and small tracts at from $75 to $125 per acre which are actually worth from 50 to 100 per cent more money. The new irrigation project, now a certainty, makes Madera county a most attractive field for investment. The lands are all suited for general farming, all fruits and vines; unimproved lands are now the best to buy. Correspondence solicited.

NEVER before in the history of this valley was the prospect for money making in raw land so good as at the present. San Joaquin valley lands are not only worth the money but they are underpriced. Compare them with any other district and you will be convinced that the greatest opportunity is at your very door, where lands can be bought in lots from 20 to 1000 acres at prices that are not only unusually low but on terms so easy that any energetic man can help but make money. I specialize in raw land and have the best in the market. Make known your desires and I will endeavor to satisfy you. Prices range from $75 per acre up for land suitable for vines, trees or alfalfa, with good water conditions.

POWER CO. ASKS TO ISSUE BONDS FOR NEW WORK

Formal Application Is Filed With State R. R. Commission

Another Bond Issue Is to Be Authorized in November

Application was filed yesterday by the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation with the Railroad Commission for the issuance of $2,600,000 of the company's Series C 6 per cent gold bonds. The proceeds from the sale of these bonds are to be used in paying off floated indebtedness and beginning new development work the company now has in prospect. The hearing of the application will be set for a date later to be decided upon by the Railroad Commission. At this hearing the power company will give in detail the plans it has for the disbursement of this money.

Preparing for More Financing.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation to be held in the company's principal offices in Los Angeles November 30, authority to increase the bonded indebtedness of the company in the amount of $5,000,000, will be voted on. This will increase the amount of the company's authorized bonded indebtedness to $34,500,000 instead of $29,500,000, as it now exists. The necessity for this increase is to prepare for the large amount of financing to be required by the company in providing new power houses and line extensions to take care of the natural growth of business that will be added to the company's lines during the coming year and also to begin the actual construction of the dams and power houses of the new spectacular Kings river development.

Wishon Shows Need of Money.

A. G. Wishon, general manager of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation, yesterday in commenting upon the application of the company for permission of the Railroad Commission to sell the new bond issue and to increase the bonded indebtedness of the company, stated:

"These procedures tell more eloquently than words the story of the miraculous growth and development of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation and the territory we serve. The demands upon us for electric service is prodigious and today our twelve different districts are virtually swamped with the work of taking applications and drawing up estimates for services that are being applied for the opening up of new lands. The fondest dreams I fostered for the development of the San Joaquin Valley make me look like a piker when compared with the actual demands that are being made for our service. It is simply beyond my conception and I cannot tell where it is going to end.

Must Finance to Build.

"The regulator of the entire proposition is money. We must have money to build the new power houses and the new lines required to take care of this phenomenal demand for service before these thousands of acres of new lands can be opened up. The only source of our money supply is the public at large. We are now preparing our financial program for our development work next year. This is the meaning of our application to the Commission for the new bond issue and for our authorization to increase our bonded indebtedness. Without the money, of course, this new work cannot be carried on. The sale of our securities during the past year has been so satisfactory that we do not anticipate any trouble in carrying out our financing program.

"Raising money is always a hard proposition, but I think the people of the San Joaquin Valley now appreciate the fact that—unless they co-operate with us by the purchase of our securities, they will delay the power developments of this company and by doing so will actually delay the time we can supply them with the electric service which they require, which in turn necessarily delays the increased valuation that land settlement and development will bring to their personal properties and the general welfare and prosperity of the communities in which they live."

Start U. C. Extension Classes Here Today

Three classes in the art of interior decoration will be formed here today at the Hotel Fresno under the University of California extension division, given by Bernard C. Jakway, a designer of San Francisco.

Classes in interior decoration will meet at 2 p. m. and at 7:45 p. m. and a class in the study of decorative materials will meet at 3:30. Miss Katherine L. Tapscott, class organizer for the university extension at Berkeley and formerly of Fresno, will be here today to assist in forming the classes.

List of Hundred Vice-Presidents Are Announced

Ray C. Wakefield, secretary of the Republican county central committee, yesterday announced the list of 100 well-known party members and workers, who have been chosen as vice-presidents of the first G. O. P. rally in Fresno of the present campaign which will be held tomorrow evening at the civic auditorium.

The principal speaker at the big meeting, which is expected to attract a turn-out of several thousands, will be United States Senator Irvine Lenroot of Wisconsin, who comes to the west in the interests of the Republican national ticket after winning a hard-fought primary battle with the LaFollette candidacy.

A pyrotechnical display to be shot off in front of the auditorium building will be the signal for the opening of the meeting. The original plans for a torchlight procession to escort the distinguished visitor have been abandoned due to lack of time.

Award Brakeman Damages For Fall

A jury in Judge Cashin's department of the superior court has awarded $2,000 damages to David Lowe, a Southern Pacific freight brakeman, for injuries sustained when he fell into a sewer ditch being constructed by Contractor H. Gould for the city.

The defense was that the dangerous place, abutting on the railroad, had been securely covered over but that tramps had removed the boards to use as firewood for the cooking of their meals. The plaintiff was walking along the track at night while engaged in switching cars when he fell into the ditch. Medical testimony for the defense tended to establish that Lowe's injuries were not permanent.

Misappropriation Is Basis of Suit

White A. Brusela, his partner in a fruit commission concern, was building a nice residence, acquiring property and otherwise appearing and becoming known as a successful merchant, business was not so good for D. P. Pagano. In fact he found himself losing money and getting heavier and heavier in debt.

Yesterday he filed a sensational action against Brusela charging that his partner's display of wealth and prosperity was due to an appropriation of practically all the firm's assets and income, whereas the books disclosed a heavy indebtedness.

Pagano cites two properly purchases and the erection of a fine home by Brusela and claims that it was paid for by the partnership's money. He asks for a dissolution of the firm, an accounting and payment of the moneys due him, and a restraining order to prevent disposition, sale or transfer of the property.

Conley Resigns As Bourbon Elector

Claiming that he was legally disqualified to hold two state positions, Judge W. M. Conley of Madera yesterday announced his withdrawal as a presidential elector for the Seventh district, a position with which he was honored by the Democratic state convention meeting in Sacramento.

Judge Conley, before making his resignation public, telegraphed the news of his action to Dave S. Lewis, state chairman of the party. He said that in the past jurists had been chosen for this position but had withdrawn when the facts were called to their attention.

According to returned delegates from the convention the possibility of this disqualification was discussed with the result that Chairman Ewing was authorized to fill any vacancies.

The Finest Pie Crust Is Easy To Make—Can You Make It?

SOME people say that the making of flaky, delicate and easily digested pie crust "is an art."

Perhaps it used to be. Today even the inexperienced girl can make the finest pie crust.

Only two things are necessary. A good recipe—which is given here. And Mazola—which is sold by all grocers.

Mazola makes delicate, flaky and easily digested pie crust because it is an absolutely pure, vegetable oil—from an edible source.

Wherever you find cooks making really good pie crust, you will find Mazola.

And once you try Mazola you will never go back to lard and compounds.

PIE CRUST

2¼ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon Baking Powder
⅓ cup Mazola
4 tablespoonsful Cold Water

Sift dry ingredients. Add water to Mazola and beat until creamy. Mix quickly into dry ingredients. Toss onto slightly floured board and roll to desired thickness. This recipe makes one double pie crust.
